THE ROAD DISTRICTS ACT, 1919-1933.

Notice of Presentation of Petition for Sale of Land for Non-Payment of Rates.

In the Local Court at Toodyay.

In the matter of the Road Districts Act, 1919-1933, and in the matter of an Application by the Victoria Plains Road Board for Sale of Land for unpaid Rates.

NOTICE is hereby given that a petition has been presented to the Local Court at Toodyay by the Victoria Plains Road Board praying that the lands described in the schedule to the petition may be ordered to be sold for non-payment of Rates.

A copy of the said schedule is set out hereunder, and notice is further given that Friday, the 5th day of June, 1942, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon has been appointed as the time when the Magistrate will inquire at the said Court concerning the various matters mentioned in the said schedule and also, whether all notices required by law to be given have been given.

Attention is directed to the following provision of the said Act:—

Any person who is an owner or ratepayer of any land proposed to be sold or taken possession of, or who is interested in the same as mortgagee or otherwise may, on filing an affidavit proving his title to attend under this rule (of the filing of which affidavit the Clerk shall give the Board notice) attend on the making of the inquiries; but if the Magistrate shall be of opinion that there was no substantial reason for his attendance, the Magistrate may order him to pay the costs occasioned thereby.

Dated the 25th day of March, 1942.

GOVERNMENT RAILWAYS ACT, 1904-1939.

Commissioner of Railways Office,
Perth, 25th March, 1942.

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, acting pursuant to section 24 of the Government Railways Act, 1904-1939, has been pleased to approve of the amendment of the by-laws made by the Commissioner of Railways under section 23 of the said Act as set forth in the Schedule hereunder.

J. A. ELLIS,
Commissioner of Railways.

Schedule.

The by-laws heretofore made by the Commissioner of Railways under section 23 of the Government Railways Act, 1904-1939, and now in force are amended by adding thereto a new by-law as follows:—

87 (1) Subject as hereinafter provided, no person, other than a railway servant acting as such in the course of his duty shall—

- (a) interfere or tamper with or damage or destroy any shade, paint, lamp, shutter, or other apparatus in a train, the escape of light from which such shade, paint, lamp, shutter or other apparatus is designed or intended to prevent or minimise; or
- (b) during the course of any period of air raid precautions black-out and while he is occupying a carriage or compartment in a train, cause or suffer any window in such carriage or compartment, being a window which has been made non-transparent by paint or other means, to be otherwise than kept closed while any light, which is not shaded or obscured or otherwise does not comply with the requirements of any civil defence regulations, is displayed in the carriage or compartment; or
- (c) during the course of any period of air raid precautions black-out and while he is occupying a carriage or compartment in a train, cause or suffer any window in such carriage or compartment, being a window, which is provided with blinds, shutters, curtains or other apparatus designed or intended to prevent the escape of light from the carriage or compartment through such window to be otherwise than kept covered or obscured by such blinds, shutters, curtains or other apparatus while any light which is not shaded or obscured or otherwise does not comply with the requirements of any civil defence regulations, is displayed in the carriage or compartment.

Provided that, while a train is stationary, nothing in this by-law shall operate so as to prohibit any person aforesaid, who is a passenger in such train, from taking such measures as are reasonably necessary to enable him to ascertain whether the train has stopped at a station at which he desires to alight from the train.

(2) Any person who in any respect contravenes this by-law shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten pounds.
