r. 9

9. Regulation 96C amended

   After regulation 96C(1a) insert:

   (2) The cost of any rehabilitation activities carried out on land disturbed by mining operations on a mining tenement may be used in the calculation of expenditure expended on, or in connection with, mining on the mining tenement.

10. Regulation 111 amended

   In regulation 111(1)(c) delete “business or, in the case of proceedings under Part VII or VIII, to any address provided under regulation 127B; or” and insert:

   business; or

11. Regulation 122A inserted

   After regulation 121 insert:

   122A. Lodging proceedings documents through Department’s website

   (1) Subject to the requirements of the Department’s website and this regulation, a person may lodge electronically a document in relation to proceedings in the warden’s court by lodging an electronic version of it by means of the Department’s website.

   (2) If a document is or must be signed by a person who is not, or who is not acting on behalf of, the person lodging it, the document cannot be lodged electronically unless it is an affidavit.
(3) If a document is in a form that, before it is lodged, is required to be signed by or on behalf of the person lodging it and the document is being lodged electronically —
   (a) the document need not be signed by that person; and
   (b) the person lodging the document electronically must ensure that the electronic version of the document, instead of showing a signature at any place where a signature is required, states the name of the person whose signature is required at the place.

(4) A person who lodges an affidavit electronically must either lodge an electronic version of it that includes the signatures on it or —
   (a) lodge an electronic version of it that does not include the signatures on it; and
   (b) ensure that the electronic version, instead of showing a signature at any place where a signature appears in the paper version, states the name of the person whose signature it is; and
   (c) also lodge an undertaking that the person —
      (i) has possession of the paper version signed according to law; and
      (ii) will retain the paper version subject to any order of the warden’s court.

(5) A document that is lodged electronically after 4.30 p.m. on a working day and before 8.30 a.m. on the next working day is to be taken to have been lodged at 8.30 a.m. on that next working day.
Mining Amendment Regulations (No. 4) 2012

r. 12

(6) If a document is sent electronically to the Department but not in accordance with the requirements of the Department’s website and this regulation —
   (a) the document is to be taken not to have been lodged; and
   (b) the mining registrar must notify the person who sent it of the fact.

(7) A person who lodges a document electronically must have the paper version of the document with him or her at any hearing of the relevant proceedings.

(8) The warden’s court may, at any time, order a person who has lodged a document electronically to lodge the paper version of the document.

(9) This regulation does not affect, and is not affected by, regulation 59B.

12. Regulation 122 amended

In regulation 122(2) after “been” insert:

endorsed on the plaint and

13. Regulation 123 amended

In regulation 123(1):

(a) in paragraph (a) delete “hearing date a mention; and” and insert:

    mention hearing date; and
(b) in paragraph (c) delete “issue a summons in the form of Form 34 in duplicate” and insert:

endorse a summons on the plaint

(c) in paragraph (c) after “service” insert:

in accordance with regulation 124

d) in paragraph (c)(iii) delete “regulation 124.” and insert:

that regulation.

14. Regulation 124 inserted

After regulation 123 insert:

124. Service of summons

(1) A summons endorsed on a plaint under regulation 123(1)(c) must be served personally on a respondent.

(2) For the purposes of subregulation (1), a summons is served personally on a respondent if it is served in accordance with regulation 150AB.

15. Regulation 125 amended

(1) In regulation 125(1a) in the definition of summons delete “under regulation 123” and insert:

endorsed on a plaint under regulation 123(1)(c)
Mining Amendment Regulations (No. 4) 2012

r. 16

(2) In regulation 125(1) delete “30 days” and insert:

14 days

16. Regulation 127 amended

Delete regulation 127(2) and insert:

(2) For the purposes of subregulation (1), a witness summons is served personally on a witness if it is served in accordance with regulation 150AB(1).

17. Regulation 127A amended

(1) Delete regulation 127A(1)(b) and insert:

(b) unless these regulations provide otherwise or the warden’s court otherwise directs, the party must serve the document —

(i) on each other party within 14 days after the document is lodged; and

(ii) by ordinary service in accordance with regulation 127CA.

(2) Delete regulation 127A(2).
18. Regulation 127B replaced

Delete regulation 127B and insert:

127B. Address for service of lodged documents

(1) A document lodged in relation to proceedings in the warden’s court must specify a residential, business or postal address for service.

(2) If the party lodging the document is represented by a lawyer, the address for service must be the principal place of business of the lawyer.

(3) The address for service specified in a document is to be taken to be the party’s address for service under this Part until —
   (a) if the document specifies the address of a lawyer under subregulation (2), the lawyer lodges a notice —
      (i) stating that the lawyer no longer acts for the party; and
      (ii) specifying the party’s new address for service if it is known to the lawyer; or
   (b) a notice of change of address is lodged by the party.

(4) If a party’s address for service under this regulation changes after the lodgment of a document in relation to proceedings, the party must lodge and serve a notice of change of address as soon as practicable after the change occurs.
127CA. Ordinary service

(1) In order to serve a document by ordinary service, a person must —
   (a) deliver the document, or send it by pre-paid post —
       (i) if an address has been provided under regulation 127B(1), to that address; or
       (ii) if an address has not been provided under regulation 127B(1), to the person’s usual or last known place of residence or principal or last known place of business, as the case may be;
   or
   (b) if an electronic address has been provided under regulation 127CB serve the document in accordance with regulation 127CC; or
   (c) serve the document as directed by the warden.

(2) This regulation does not prevent a person from consenting to being served in a manner other than in accordance with this Part.

127CB. Electronic addresses for service

(1) For the purposes of enabling the service by fax of documents that under this Part are required to be served, a person may, in addition to providing an address for service under regulation 127B(1), provide a fax number operating at that address.

(2) For the purposes of enabling the service by email of documents that under this Part are required to be served, a person may, in addition to providing an address for service under regulation 127B(1), provide an email address operating at that address.
(3) If a lawyer practises in a business with one or more other lawyers or people —

(a) any fax number provided under subregulation (1) must be the fax number of the business and not that of the lawyer personally; and

(b) any email address provided under subregulation (2) must be the email address of the business and not that of the lawyer personally.

(4) A person who under this regulation provides an email address or a fax number is to be taken to consent to being served with documents by fax at that fax number, or as an attachment to an email sent to that email address, as the case may be.

(5) If a party’s fax number or email address provided under this regulation changes, the party must lodge with the warden and serve a notice of change of address as soon as practicable after the change occurs.

127CC. Service electronically

(1) If under this Part a party is required to serve a document, then, unless the contrary intention appears, the party may serve the document —

(a) if the party to be served has provided a fax number under regulation 127CB(1), by sending the document by fax to that number; or

(b) if the party to be served has provided an email address under regulation 127CB(2), by sending the document as an attachment to an email sent to that address.
(2) A document that is served by fax must have a cover page stating —
   (a) the sender’s name, postal address, telephone number and fax number; and
   (b) the number of pages (including the cover page) being sent by fax.

(3) A person that serves a document by fax must —
   (a) endorse the first page of the original document with —
       (i) a statement that the document is the original of a document sent by fax; and
       (ii) the date and time the document was sent by fax;
   and
   (b) keep the endorsed original document and the fax machine’s report evidencing the successful transmission of the document; and
   (c) if directed to do so by the warden, produce the items in paragraph (b) to the warden.

(4) A document that is served by email or fax on a person is to be taken to have been served —
   (a) if the whole document is sent before 4.30 p.m. on a working day, on that day;
   (b) otherwise, on the next working day.

(5) Subregulation (1), with any necessary changes, applies to the service by the warden of any document on a party.

(6) This regulation does not prevent a person from consenting to being served in a manner other than in accordance with this Part.

(b) unless these regulations provide otherwise or the warden otherwise directs, the party must serve the document —

(i) on each other party within 14 days after the document is lodged; and

(ii) by ordinary service in accordance with regulation 150AA.
22. Regulation 149 replaced

Delete regulation 149 and insert:

149. Address for service of lodged documents

(1) A document lodged in relation to proceedings must specify a residential, business or postal address for service.

(2) If the party lodging the document is represented by a lawyer, the address for service must be the principal place of business of the lawyer.

(3) The address for service specified in the document is to be taken to be the party’s address for service under this Part until —

(a) if the document specifies the address of a lawyer under subregulation (2), the lawyer lodges a notice —

(i) stating that the lawyer no longer acts for the party; and

(ii) specifying the party’s new address for service if it is known to the lawyer;

or

(b) a notice of change of address is lodged by the party.

(4) If a party’s address for service under this regulation changes after the lodgment of documents in relation to proceedings, the party must lodge and serve a notice of change of address as soon as practicable after the change occurs.
150AA. Ordinary service

(1) In order to serve a document by ordinary service, a person must —

(a) deliver the document, or send it by pre-paid post —

(i) if an address has been provided under regulation 149(1), to that address; or

(ii) if an address has not been provided under regulation 149(1), to the person’s usual or last known place of residence or principal or last known place of business, as the case may be;

or

(b) if an electronic address has been provided under regulation 150A, serve the document in accordance with regulation 150B; or

(c) serve the document as directed by the warden.

(2) This regulation does not prevent a person from consenting to being served in a manner other than in accordance with this Part.

150AB. Personal service

(1) In order to serve a document on an individual personally, a person must —

(a) hand the document to the individual or, if the individual is a person under a legal disability, to the individual’s parent, guardian or litigation guardian; or

(b) if the individual or the individual’s parent, guardian or litigation guardian, as the case may be, does not accept the document, put the document down in his or her presence and

r. 22

advise him or her of the nature of the document; or
(c) hand the document to a person who is authorised in writing to receive documents on behalf of the individual; or
(d) hand the document to someone at the individual’s principal or last known place of residence or business who is believed, on reasonable grounds, to have reached 18 years of age; or
(e) hand the document to a lawyer who is acting for the individual.

(2) In order to serve a document on a body corporate personally, a person must hand the document to —
(a) a person who, on reasonable grounds, is believed to be a director of the body corporate who resides in Australia; or
(b) a lawyer who is acting for the body corporate.

(3) In order to serve a document on a public authority personally, a person must —
(a) hand the document to a person who, on reasonable grounds, is believed to be —
(i) the chief executive officer of the public authority; or
(ii) authorised to receive documents on behalf of the chief executive officer of the public authority;

or

(b) hand the document to a lawyer who is acting for the public authority.
150AC. Warden may dispense with personal service

The warden may make an order dispensing with a requirement in this Part for a person to serve a document personally.
