HEALTH ACT, 1911-1960.

Town of Northam.

Health By-Law—Snack Bars.

WHEREAS under the provisions of the Health Act, 1911-1960, a local authority may make by-laws and may amend, repeal or alter any by-laws so made: Now, therefore, the Town of Northam, being a local authority, doth hereby make the following by-laws:—

Part 1.

Interpretation.

1. This by-law shall come into operation on the publication hereof in the Government Gazette.

2. In the construction of this by-law, unless the context otherwise requires—

- (1) "Act" means the Health Act, 1911-1960, and any amendment thereof;
- (2) "food" means any substance, whether solid or liquid, or partly solid and partly liquid, used or intended to be used for food or drink by man, other than drugs or water, and includes any article intended to enter into or be used in the preparation or composition of such food, and confectionery, flavouring, and colouring matters and condiments;
- (3) "inspector" means any person appointed by the local authority to be a health inspector pursuant to the provisions of the Act;
- (4) "license" means a license to conduct a snack bar granted pursuant to this by-law;
- (5) "Local Authority" means the Town of Northam;

- (6) "meals" means and includes any substances whether solid or liquid or partly solid and partly liquid used or intended to be used for food or drink by man.

The term does not include drugs, water, milk, ice cream, soda fountain or iced drinks commonly known as cool or soft drinks, or aerated waters.

- (7) "Medical Officer" means the Medical Officer of the Local Authority and includes any person acting in that capacity;
- (8) "proprietor" means the person having the management or control of a snack bar.
- (9) "snack bar" means any food stall or other premises from which meals as defined in the Act are served to the public for gain or reward and includes the land used in connection therewith.

The following are excepted:—

- (i) Eating houses (as defined in the Act).
 - (ii) Any premises licensed under the Licensing Act, 1911, and amendments.
 - (iii) Any boarding house or lodging house.
 - (iv) Automatic food or meal suppliers where no person is in attendance.
 - (v) Any building or other structure used temporarily for serving meals to the public, at any fair, show, military encampment, races, or other public sports, games or amusements;
- (10) "Town Clerk" means the Town Clerk or the acting Town Clerk for the time being of the Town of Northam.

Part 2.

Licenses and Registration.

3. No person shall occupy or use any stall or other premises as a snack bar, and such occupation and use is prohibited unless—

- (a) the snack bar is registered under this by-law;
- (b) the occupier is a holder of a license issued by the Local Authority authorising him to conduct on the premises the business of a snack bar.

4. Before a snack bar is registered under this by-law, the occupier or owner thereof shall make written application to the Town Clerk and shall forward with his application a plan indicating the exact location, and area of proposed site and details of proposed structure.

5. Before any license to conduct a snack bar is granted by the Local Authority under this by-law, the applicant shall sign an application for the same in the appropriate form prescribed in the First Schedule hereto, and shall forward the same to the Town Clerk.

6. Any person who makes a false statement in connection with any application under clauses 4 and 5 hereof shall be guilty of an offence.

7. Every certificate of registration of premises registered as a snack bar and every license issued to an occupier to conduct a snack bar shall be kept on the registered premises in a position visible to the general public and in such manner as not to be defaced or damaged, and when requested shall be produced to an inspector.

8. Every certificate of registration and every license shall be in force from the day of issue until and inclusive of the 31st day of December next ensuing, unless the same be cancelled in the meantime in accordance with the provisions of this by-law.

9. Applications for renewal of certificates of registration and licenses shall be made annually during the month of December.

10. The fees payable to the Local Authority on the registration of premises, on the issuing of a license and on the renewal of any registration or licenses shall be as follows:—

For registration of premises—£5.

For license to conduct a snack bar—£1.

11. So often as any person holding the license issued pursuant to this by-law changes his place of abode he shall, within seven days next after such a change, give notice thereof in writing to the Town Clerk specifying in such notice his new place of abode and he shall, at the same time, produce such license to the Town Clerk, who shall endorse thereon and sign a memorandum specifying the particulars of such change.

12. Any license issued to any proprietor under the provisions of this by-law to conduct a snack bar shall not be transferable to any other person.

13. If the owner of any premises registered as a snack bar desires to sell, lease or transfer the said premises to any other person, an application by that person shall be made to the Town Clerk for a license to conduct a snack bar as required by paragraph 5, before any sale, lease or transfer is made.

14. Where application is made to the Local Authority either for—

- (i) a snack bar to be registered; or
- (ii) a license to be issued to conduct on any premises the business of a snack bar;

then—

- (i) such application may be granted or refused arbitrarily without any reason being given; and
- (ii) any such registration or license, if allowed and granted, may be cancelled at any time if any condition or term of issue be broken or if any of the provisions of this by-law not be complied with.

15. Before any premises are registered as a snack bar the site intended to be used shall be subject to the approval of the Local Authority.

Structure and Management.

16. The use of stalls or other premises as snack bars is forbidden unless the following conditions are complied with:—

- (a) The walls shall be constructed of impervious materials and shall have a smooth, hard, durable and washable surface, devoid of holes, cracks and crevices.
- (b) Every structure shall be ceiled with a material as required by clause (a) and shall be maintained throughout its area and at the wall junctions free from holes, cracks and crevices.
- (c) The floors of all structures shall be constructed of or covered with an impervious material free from holes or cracks and shall be of such construction as to permit of cleansing without lodgment of any cleansing fluid.

If required by the Local Authority a floor waste fitting shall be installed to discharge as approved by the Local Authority.

- (d) There shall be provided adequate food storage facilities and cupboards to prevent the contamination of food, crockery and utensils by dirt, dust, flies and vermin of any kind.
- (e) There shall be provided on every registered premises separate water closets for each sex constructed in accordance with the Local Authority and Metropolitan Water Supply, Sewerage and Drainage Department by-laws, each convenience to be clearly indicated as to sex.

- (g) An approved hot water system shall be installed, together with adequate sink facilities for the thorough cleansing of all drinking vessels and other utensils used on the premises, to the satisfaction of the Local Authority.
- (h) Immediately after each occasion of the use, the proprietor shall cause all drinking vessels and any other utensil used by the public to be cleansed by means of washing in water containing a suitable detergent. The temperature of such water shall not - be less than 120 degrees Fahrenheit. They shall then be rinsed in clear hot water at a temperature of not less than 180 degrees Fahrenheit.

- (i) There shall be provided efficient and adequate means of refrigeration for the preservation of food to the satisfaction of the Local Authority.
 - (j) There shall be provided a sufficient number of suitable receptacles constructed in accordance with the Local Authority's by-laws for the purpose of receiving all waste matter, and shall be maintained in a clean and efficient condition and kept in such position as directed by the Local Authority.
 - (k) No food which is unsound, substandard, unwholesome, putrescent or weevilled, shall be—
 - (i) sold from such snack bar;
 - (ii) served from such snack bar;
 - (iii) used in the preparation of food or meals in such snack bar.
 - (l) All food which is unsound, unwholesome, putrescent or weevilled shall be immediately withdrawn from sale, stock or use and placed in the waste food garbage bin.
 - (m) No commodity and article other than food and meals shall be—
 - (i) sold from such snack bar;
 - (ii) kept on such snack bar for the purpose of sale.
 - (n) No live animal or bird shall be kept in or upon any portion of the registered premises and no animal, bird or fish shall be cleaned or dressed upon or in any portion of the registered premises.
 - (o) Where a sewer is available within 300 feet of a registered structure, all sanitary conveniences and liquid wastes shall be discharged thereto.
 - (p) Where no sewer is available, all water closets or urinals shall be connected to an apparatus for the bacteriolytic treatment of sewage and all liquid wastes shall discharge to approved soak wells via a properly constructed grease trap approved of by the Local Authority.
 - (q) Bacteriolytic treatment plants, soak wells, and grease traps shall at all times be maintained in an efficient working condition.
 - (r) No person who is suffering from any communicable disease, suppurating wound or sore, or any other disease likely to contaminate food shall be employed or be in any way connected with the handling or preparation of food.
 - (s) All persons preparing or handling food shall wear a clean outer garment or overall of washable material and every person before beginning or recommencing the preparation of food and immediately after visiting a water closet or urinal shall wash his hands, and every person shall maintain his clothing and body in a clean condition. The proprietor of a registered premises shall provide and maintain on such premises adequate and efficient means of maintaining personal cleanliness to the satisfaction of the Local Authority.
 - (t) The area surrounding any structure shall be covered with either grass or material which shall be of such a nature as to prevent dust arising and shall be maintained in a condition satisfactory to the Local Authority.
 - (u) Where a caravan type of structure is to be utilised, the wheels shall be removed and the body securely supported by some solid material and the space beneath securely enclosed with impervious material.
 - (v) The whole of the premises, including sanitary conveniences and area surrounding the registered structure shall be maintained in a thoroughly clean and tidy condition, and all empty crates, cartons, etc., shall be removed from the premises as soon as practicable.

- (w) Artificial lighting shall be provided by electricity and there shall be provided adequate lighting in the registered structure and sanitary conveniences and any other such lighting as shall be deemed necessary by the Local Authority.
- (x) Any amenities provided for the use of customers, such as chairs, tables, braziers, etc., shall be subject to the approval of the Local Authority.

Penalty.

17. Any person who shall commit a breach of any provision of this by-law shall be guilty of an offence and on conviction shall be liable to—
- (i) a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds (£20); and
 - (ii) a daily penalty not exceeding two pounds (£2) where the breach is of a continuing nature.

HOSPITAL ACT, 1927-1955.

Norseman District Hospital Board—Resolution.

M. 5427/59.

WHEREAS under the provisions of section 23 of the Hospitals Act, 1927-1955, a Board may itself establish and manage a Medical Fund, the object of which shall be to secure for its subscribers medical attendance, hospital treatment, or other similar benefits, and may, by by-laws, provide for the regulation and control of such funds; and whereas the Board of Management of the Norseman District Hospital has established a Medical Fund and has made by-laws for the control and management thereof as published in the Government Gazette on the 10th day of September, 1954, and whereas the Board of Management now deems it expedient to amend the by-laws: Now therefore, the Board of Management of the Norseman District Hospital, acting pursuant to section 23 of the Hospital Act, 1927-1955, doth hereby repeal existing by-laws and substitute by-laws for the control and management of its Medical Fund hereinbeforementioned as set forth in the schedule hereunder.

Schedule.

Constitution of Norseman District Hospital and Medical Fund (an organisation registered for Commonwealth Hospital and Medical Benefits).

Name.

1. This Institution shall be called the "Norseman District Hospital and Medical Fund," hereafter referred to as the "Fund".

Office.

2. The office of the Fund shall be situated at the Hospital Norseman or such other place as the Fund shall determine.

Liability of Subscribers.

3. The liability of subscribers to the Fund shall be limited to that amount of entrance fees, subscriptions, levies, fines, and/or interest as are prescribed.

Object.

4. The objects of the Fund are—

- (a) to establish a Medical Benefit Fund by the contributions from subscribers' entrance fees, subscriptions, donations, levies, fines, interest and from any other source within the scope of the National Health Act, 1953-1959, and any amendments thereto;
- (b) to establish a Hospital Benefits Fund by the contribution from subscribers' entrance fees, subscriptions, donations, levies, fines, interest and from any other source within the scope of the National Health Act, 1953-1959, and any amendments thereto;
- (c) to establish a Capital and Amenities Fund by the amounts received by way of donations, concessions, allowances, gifts, annuities, and the like which may from time to time be offered and accepted by the Fund;
- (d) to establish such other fund or funds, as the Fund may from time to time determine, provided that rules governing such other fund or funds shall be approved by the Minister for Health for the Commonwealth, or the Minister for Public Health in the State of Western Australia, for the time being;
- (e) to provide Medical Benefits as stated in the first and second schedules of the National Health Act, 1953-1959, and any amendments thereto, to subscribers and/or their dependants, and for reimbursing to such subscribers payments so made by them in any part of the Commonwealth or if absent from Australia temporarily then in that country where the Medical expenses were incurred in accordance with the National Health Act, 1953-1959, and any amendments thereto.
- (f) to provide Hospital Benefits as stated in the National Health Act, 1953-1959, to subscribers and/or their dependants for reimbursing to such subscribers payments so made by them;
- (g) to provide such other additional benefits or benefit which may from time to time be determined by the Fund, provided that such other additional benefits or benefit shall be approved by the Minister for Health for the Commonwealth, or the Minister for Public Health in the State of Western Australia, for the time being;

- (h) to provide, take on lease or in exchange, mortgage, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights and privileges which the Fund may think necessary, desirable or convenient for the purpose of conducting its business, and to construct, maintain and alter any buildings or works necessary, desirable or convenient for the purpose of the Fund;
- (i) to raise or borrow money by the way of bank overdraft upon such terms and in such manner and upon such securities as the Fund shall think fit;
- (j) to amalgamate with or take over any society or fund providing all or any similar benefits, if deemed necessary, desirable or convenient;
- (k) to apply for registration as a Medical and Hospital Benefits Fund specially authorised for the purpose of carrying all or any of the above objects;
- (l) to apply for and obtain requisite registration and approval by the prescribed authority for the purpose of being a registered Fund in connection with any Commonwealth or State Government Scheme of Social Security for the purpose of granting of benefits thereunder and for being eligible to receive subsidies and payments by way of subvention and any other payments which may be available;
- (m) to execute agreements with qualified medical practitioners and pharmacists for the purpose of providing medical and pharmaceutical services to subscribers.

Rules of Administration.

Preliminary.

5. In these rules of administration—

“The Fund” means the Norseman District Hospital and Medical Fund and the Fund shall be administered by the Board of Management in four separate and distinct departments with the following designations:—

	<hr/>		<hr/>

(c) The Board may at its discretion determine the weekly rate of subscription which shall be paid by each subscriber to the Fund.

(d) All employees subscribing through any mining company, shall be deemed to be financial as from the date of their employment.

(e) The secretary shall be responsible for the collecting of all subscriptions and other money due to the Fund.

(f) Subscribers whose subscriptions are 14 days or more in arrears may only be entitled to such benefits as might be determined by the Board.

Benefits.

8. (a) The following benefits shall apply:—

- (1) Contract Medical services for subscribers currently on the doctor's list as provided for in the current contract with the Fund Medical Officer, as shown in the First Schedule attached hereto.
- (2) Medical benefits for services not having been rendered under the contract at the rates shown in the First and Second Schedules appended hereto, provided that the Board of Management may exercise its discretionary powers to deal with claims for treatment outside the Fund's district.
- (3) Hospital Benefits as set out in the Third Schedule appended hereto, provided that for in-patients treatment outside the Fund's district the period of benefit shall be limited to 70 days in any one year. No member shall receive a combined Commonwealth and Fund Hospital Benefit exceeding the daily rate actually charged. Where the combined hospital benefit would exceed the hospital charge, the Fund benefit shall be abated to reduce the total benefit payable to the amount charged.
- (4) Ancillary benefits as provided for in the Fourth Schedule appended hereto which may be altered at the discretion of the Board at any time.

(b) Benefits will not be paid in the following cases:—

- (1) When a subscriber is unfinancial.
- (2) Where the existence of the disability necessitating hospital and/or medical treatment was known at the date the subscriber joined the Fund provided that the Board may exercise its discretionary powers in such cases.
- (3) Where the disability is covered by the Mine Workers' Compensation Act or any claim for damages.
- (4) Venereal diseases.
- (5) Dental treatment.
- (6) Treatment in a sanatorium.
- (7) Treatment in a mental hospital.
- (8) Where the disability is the result of the misconduct of the patient.
- (9) Those illnesses or disabilities which are the result of drinking intoxicating liquor or the infraction of any statute of Western Australia or Criminal Code in Australia.
- (10) A member leaving the hospital grounds without permission in writing of the doctor or matron shall immediately render himself liable to the forfeiture of all benefits.
- (11) For tuberculosis from the date of positive diagnosis.
- (12) Treatment as an outpatient of a public hospital.
- (13) Examinations for life assurance or certificate of health.
- (14) For poliomyelitis from the date of positive diagnosis.
- (15) Subscribers who fail to submit claims within six months of the date on which such medical or hospital services were rendered will only be entitled to such benefits as may be determined by the Board after consideration of such special circumstances as may be applicable.

(c) Any subscriber desiring to claim benefits should do so in the prescribed form provided by the Fund.

Repayment of Services.

9. (a) Should a subscriber, or dependant of a subscriber, receive benefit, either directly or indirectly, in excess of any maximum set out in the table of benefits, the subscriber shall refund to the Fund the cost of such excess.

(b) Should a subscriber, or a dependant of a subscriber, receive benefit, either directly or indirectly in respect of an illness or a complaint arising from any complaint (or its equal) that existed prior to being admitted to membership, the subscriber may be required to refund to the Fund the cost of such benefit.

(c) In the event of his refusal or failure to make such refund within fourteen (14) days after written notice shall have been given him requiring him to make such refund, then the Fund may forthwith sue for and recover from such a subscriber as a liquidated sum an amount equal to the cost of such benefits together with all legal costs or other expenses which the Fund may have incurred by reason of the matters hereinbefore stated. Written notice shall be deemed to have been given to such subscriber on the posting of such notice with postage prepaid thereon, addressed to such subscriber, at his last address recorded with the Fund.

(d) Combined Commonwealth and Fund benefit payable shall be limited to ninety per cent (90%) of the fee charged for the service. Where but for this section the amount of medical benefit payable would exceed 90 per cent. of the fee charged, Fund benefit shall be reduced to an amount which would make the combined benefit equal to 90 per cent. of the fee charged for that service.

Administration.

10. (a) The administration of the Fund shall be vested in a Board of Management of thirteen members, one member shall be the Fund Medical Officer, the remaining twelve officers shall hold office for two years.

(b) The first members of the Board of Management shall consist of those members holding office on the Norseman Hospital Board of Management as at 30th June, 1953.

(c) Six members of the Board shall retire annually.

(d) The Board shall decide those six members first to retire. Thereafter retirement of members shall be in rotation.

(e) At all Board meetings six members shall form a quorum.

Selection of Board of Management.

11. (a) Nominations must be lodged with the secretary at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date of ballot, and must be signed by a proposer and seconder (who must be subscribers), and have the consent of the candidate (who shall also be a subscriber) endorsed thereon.

(b) The ballot for selection of members shall be held during July in each year.

(c) The members of the Board shall elect one of their number to be Chairman at the first meeting after the appointment of the Board. The Chairman shall, when present, preside at all meetings. In the absence of the chairman from any meeting, the members present may elect one of their number to be chairman for that meeting. The chairman shall be a member of all sub-committees.

(d) If any member of the Board shall be absent for more than two consecutive meetings without leave of absence, or shall cease to be a subscriber, the Board may declare his seat vacant and appoint another member in his stead for the unexpired portion of his term.

Finance Committee.

12. (a) The Board shall elect not less than three of their members to form a finance committee. The finance committee shall give to the Board, accounts which it recommends for payment, and present a statement of receipts and payments for the past month and an estimate for the ensuing month.

(b) No account shall be passed for payment unless it is initialed by the Secretary as correct.

(c) All payments authorised by the Board shall be paid by cheque made payable to the order of the creditor, signed by the Chairman, and one member of the Finance Committee, and countersigned by the Secretary. In the absence of the Chairman such cheques shall be signed by two members of the Finance Committee and countersigned by the Secretary.

Auditor.

13. One auditor may be appointed by the Board of Management, who shall receive such remuneration as the Board may think fit.

Accounts.

14. (a) The accounts of the Fund shall be kept to disclose—
- (i) the assets and liabilities, income and expenditure;
 - (ii) sources of income, and purpose of expenditure.
- (b) Statements of accounts shall be prepared yearly for period ending 30th June, and comprise—
- (1) Income and Expenditure account;
 - (2) Balance sheet of assets and liabilities at 30th June.

Such statements shall be submitted to the Board of Management following completion of the audit.

Appropriation of Funds.

- (a) The Board of Management shall have the authority to appropriate the funds for services.
- (b) Not more than fifteen per cent. (15%) of the total subscription shall be appropriated for management purposes.
- (c) All moneys received shall be applied in carrying out the objects of the Fund, in accordance with these rules.
- (d) No payment shall be made from either the Medical Benefit Fund or the Hospital Benefit Fund, from moneys received by way of subscriptions or subsidies other than for benefits to subscribers and for management.

Inspection of Books and Balance Sheet.

16. A copy of the last annual balance sheet with the auditor's report shall always be available at the office of the Fund.

Copy of By-laws.

17. Every member shall be entitled to receive upon application, a copy of the by-laws at a price to be affixed by the Board of Management.

Order of Business.

18. (a) The order of business at meetings of the Board will be:—
- (1) Minutes of the previous meetings to be read, and if correct, confirmed.
 - (2) Correspondence, outward and inward, to be read and discussed.
 - (3) Reports.
 - (4) Questions.
 - (5) Finance.
 - (6) Discussion of notices of motion.
 - (7) Receiving notice of motion.
 - (8) General Business.
- (b) At the meetings of the Board all the members present shall vote on any question submitted and the question shall be decided by the majority. Each member, including the Chairman, shall have one vote, and, in the case of equality of votes, the question shall be declared carried in the negative. The election of executive officers shall be made by ballot.

(c) Special meetings of the Board may be convened at any time on 24 hours' notice, in writing, being given to the members, either at the request of the Chairman or any four (4) members.

(d) Any resolution of the Board may be revoked or altered at any subsequent meeting either by the unanimous vote of all members, or by a vote of a majority of the Board, subject in such last-mentioned case to the condition that seven (7) days at least before such subsequent meeting notice of writing thereof and of the proposal to alter or revoke such resolution, shall have been given to each member.

(e) The Board may, from time to time, appoint a subcommittee of any number with such powers, rights, and privileges, and subject to such conditions and restrictions, as the Board may at such appointment or thereafter determine.

(f) The Board shall regulate the several departments of the Fund in accordance with the By-laws.

Annual General Meeting.

19. (a) An annual general meeting of subscribers shall be held during July of each year, the financial year terminating on the 30th June. Subscribers to be notified by advertisement at least fourteen (14) days before the date of such meeting, and twenty (20) subscribers at the date of the meeting shall form a quorum.

(b) At the annual meeting, the annual reports and balance sheet of the Fund shall be presented by the Chairman; such balance sheets to be published at least seven (7) days before the meeting, and to be signed by the Chairman and Secretary.

Special General Meetings.

20. (a) The Secretary shall whenever required by the Chairman, Board, or upon requisition in writing signed by not less than twenty (20) subscribers, convene a special general meeting of subscribers. The requisition shall express the objects of the meeting, and shall be left with the Secretary, who shall forthwith convene a special meeting. In the event of the Secretary failing to do so within ten (10) days from the time of the requisition being received by him, the requisitionists, or any member of them, may convene a special meeting.

(b) At least fourteen days notice of every special meeting, shall be given each subscriber by advertisement in the local newspaper, or other means, as the Board shall direct. Such notice shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting, and the general nature of the business.

(c) At a special meeting, twenty (20) subscribers shall form a quorum. If within 15 minutes from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum of subscribers is not present the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of subscribers, shall be dissolved. In another case it shall stand adjourned, to a time and place to be fixed.

Complaints.

21. Any subscribers, or any member of the staff having any complaints or other business to bring before the Board, should submit the same in writing to the Board, and, if required, shall attend personally the meeting of the Board. The Board's decision shall be final.

Secretary.

22. (a) The Secretary shall be appointed by the Board, and shall hold office during the pleasure of the Board.

(b) The salary shall be fixed by the Board from time to time.

(c) He shall conduct the correspondence and have charge of all documents relating to the Fund, and shall file and record them in a methodical manner, to the satisfaction of the chairman.

(d) He shall summon and attend all meetings and shall keep the minute books, in which all the proceedings of the meetings shall be recorded; and shall see as far as practicable that all resolutions or orders passed at such meetings are forthwith carried into effect.

(e) He shall, under the direction of the Board, keep the books, forms and accounts of the Fund and shall submit his account books to the Board and finance committee whenever required.

(f) He shall receive from the medical officers an accurate record of the surgical operations performed by them, and names of all patients treated with results, and, be responsible for the rendering of accounts for all amounts due and unpaid.

(g) He shall receive all moneys paid to the Fund and enter same in the cash book, and pay same into bank. No moneys shall be held for a period longer than seven days.

(h) He shall on the day following each Board or subcommittee meeting transcribe in the minute book fair copies of the minutes taken during each meeting.

(i) He shall balance the cash book at the end of each four weekly accounting period, noting whether such balance agrees with that shown by the bank book, and, if not agreeing, explain the cause of the difference.

(j) He shall keep the subscribers' register, and enter therein and in the cash book, all subscriptions and donations, etc., and shall report the same at the next meeting of the Board.

(k) He shall keep a duplicate or true copy of all letters written on the business of the Fund, and shall execute all orders he may receive from the Board or the Chairman.

(l) He shall be in attendance at his office at such times as the Board may from time to time appoint, and such hours shall be posted outside his office.

(m) He shall be guaranteed for £100 by some recognised guarantee society or by some responsible person, the premium for such guarantee to be paid by the Fund.

New By-laws.

23. (1) The Board shall have power to alter, amend, cancel or add to these By-laws and make new By-laws, but no such alteration or addition of new By-laws shall be made unless approved by the Board after the notice of motion to make such alteration, addition, or new By-law has been given at the previous meeting of the Board, and due notice has been given to every member of the Board; and such alteration, addition or amendment shall only remain in force until the next general or special meeting of subscribers, unless it is adopted and approved at such a meeting.

(2) Any alteration, amendment, cancellation or addition to these By-laws made under the provisions of paragraph (1) of this By-law shall be published in the Government Gazette.

Dissolution of Fund.

24. The Fund may be terminated or dissolved in accordance with rules prescribed by statute.

Clerk of the Council.

FREMANTLE HARBOUR TRUST ACT, 1902-1960.

Office of the Fremantle Harbour Trust,
Fremantle, 24th September, 1962.

THE Fremantle Harbour Trust Commissioners, acting pursuant to the provisions of the Fremantle Harbour Trust Act, 1902-1960, hereby make the regulations set out in the schedule hereunder.

Schedule.

Regulations.

Part I—Preliminary.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Fremantle Harbour Trust (Debentures and Inscribed Stock) Regulations, 1962. Citation.
2. In these regulations unless the context otherwise requires— Interpretation.
 - “debentures” means debentures created and issued by the Trust under the Act;
 - “Registrar” means the officer for the time being appointed to or acting in the office of Registrar of Stock and includes an acting Registrar of Stock, and any person appointed to be an Assistant Registrar of Stock;
 - “schedule” means the schedule to these regulations;
 - “stock” means inscribed stock created and issued by the Trust under the provisions of the Act;
 - “stockholder” means a person whose name is inscribed in the stock ledger of the Trust in respect of any stock;
 - “stock ledger” means the ledger of the Trust in which the stock held is recorded or inscribed;
 - “the Act” means the Fremantle Harbour Trust Act, 1902 (as amended);
 - “the office” means the principal administrative offices of the Trust at Fremantle;
 - “the Trust” means the body corporate constituted under the Act by the name of the Fremantle Harbour Trust Commissioners.
3. A debenture shall be in accordance with Form No. 1 of the schedule. Form of debenture.
4. (1) An application to purchase stock or debentures may be made on the form accompanying the prospectus and in accordance with the conditions contained in the prospectus, or where no prospectus is issued, then in a form approved by the Trust. Application for stock or debentures.
 - (2) An application need not necessarily be rejected because it is not on the required form.
 - (3) In the case of a joint account, an application for stock shall set forth the names of the applicants in the order in which they are to appear in the stock ledger.
 - (4) The purchase money for debentures or stock shall be paid by the applicant in accordance with the terms of the application or the prospectus (if any).
 - (5) On payment in full for any debentures or stock the Trust shall, where the applicant has applied for debentures, issue the same to the applicant and, where the applicant has applied for stock, proceed to allot the same.

Part II.—Inscription and Issue of Stock.

5. (1) After allotment and payment in full for stock, the name of the allottee together with the amount of stock allotted and such other matters and particulars as the Registrar may deem necessary, shall be inscribed in the stock ledger. Stock ledger.
 - (2) The stock ledger may be kept in the form of a loose leaf ledger or in any other manner approved by the Trust.

(3) Every entry in the stock ledger shall be initialled by the Registrar or such other officer of the Trust as the Trust may from time to time appoint, and the ledger shall be audited from time to time by an officer appointed for that purpose by the Auditor General of the State.

Inscription
of stock.

6. (1) Unless the Trust otherwise directs, stock shall be inscribed or remain inscribed only in amounts of £10 or some multiple of £10.

(2) Stock may be inscribed in the name of one person or of more persons than one but not exceeding four, and the full name, address, and description of that person or, as the case may be, of each of those persons, shall be entered in the stock ledger.

(3) The Trust and the Registrar shall for all purposes be entitled to regard the person or persons whose name or names is or are inscribed in the stock ledger as the true and absolute owners and holders of the stock in relation to which such name or names is or are so inscribed, and all receipts, acquittances, discharges, releases and documents whatsoever executed by such person or persons in relation to such stock, or the interest thereon, shall be deemed for all purposes and against all persons to be documents duly executed by the person or persons entitled to such stock or interest, as the case may be.

Companies, firms and corporations.

7. (1) Stock shall not be inscribed in the name of a firm as such, but shall be inscribed in the names of the individual partners, but not exceeding four.

(2) Stock may be inscribed in the name of a registered company or other corporation, but the Registrar must first be furnished with a copy of the certificate of incorporation or Act of Parliament or Royal Charter or other instrument under which such company or corporation is established, together with a certified specimen of the seal of the company or corporation, a duly verified copy of any regulations or by-laws or resolutions governing the mode of affixing that seal and the full names and specimen signatures of persons authorised to sign forms in connection therewith.

(3) The Registrar shall cause such documents to be affixed in the signature register.

(4) If from any cause any such authorised person is substituted by another person, notification in writing of such alteration shall be given to the Registrar under seal by the company or corporation.

(5) All forms required under these regulations to bear the seal of a registered company or other corporation shall be sealed and witnessed in accordance with the articles of the registered company or other corporation, provided that the Registrar may require proof that any document has been so sealed.

(6) In the case of a company or other corporation incorporated outside Australia, the Registrar may inscribe stock in the name of that company or other corporation upon the authority of and upon being furnished with a properly executed power of attorney authorising dealings in stock by the attorney on behalf of the company or other corporation.

Friendly
societies, industrial unions,
industrial
organisations or incor-
associations.

8. (1) Stock may be inscribed in the name of any friendly society or industrial union of employers or industrial union of workers or other industrial organisation which the Registrar is satisfied is registered under the laws of any State of the Commonwealth, or any branch of any friendly society, industrial union or industrial organisation so registered, or in the name of any organisation or body incorporated under the provisions of the Associations Incorporation Act, 1895 (as amended).

(2) Any union, organisation, society or body in whose name stock is inscribed under this regulation shall furnish the Registrar with a certificate in the form approved by the Trust containing the names and signatures of two or more persons who are appointed to sign any document relating to stock inscribed in the name of such union, organisation, society or body. Certificates, receipts and other documents relating to stock inscribed under this regulation shall be issued only to such person or persons as are appointed in that behalf, and no transaction in relation to stock inscribed in accordance with this regulation shall be effected unless the transaction is authorised by the person so appointed, and the Trust shall be under no liability in respect of any such transaction which is or purports to be so authorised.

3. Whenever any person is appointed to replace a person authorised in accordance with the certificate, the union, organisation, society or body shall furnish the Registrar with a fresh certificate in accordance with this regulation.

9. (1) No entry of any trust shall be made in the stock ledger and the Trust and the Registrar shall be entitled to treat the person or persons whose name or names is or are inscribed in the stock ledger in respect of any stock as the absolute owner or owners thereof and accordingly shall not be bound to recognise any equitable or other claim to or interest in such stock on the part of any other person.

Trusts not recognised.

(2) Executors, administrators and trustees shall not be registered as such but in their individual names without reference to any trusteeship.

10. Any change of address of a stockholder shall be forthwith notified by him in writing to the Registrar.

Change of address.

11. (1) On the marriage of a female stockholder, her name and description shall be altered in the stock ledger with respect to stock standing in her name solely or jointly after lodgment with the Registrar of a request in the form approved by the Trust, signed by her, stating in full the name of her husband and setting forth the particulars of the stock in respect of which it is desired to have the alteration made.

Marriage of female stockholder.

(2) The stockholder shall, if so required by the Registrar, lodge with the Registrar or inspection her marriage certificate or a certified copy of such marriage certificate together with such proof as the Registrar may reasonably require.

12. Upon receipt of a request in writing from a stockholder to correct a mistake in the stock ledger, the Registrar may amend the stock ledger if he is satisfied that any stock has been inscribed incorrectly owing to a mistake in any document. If the Registrar so requires, the stock holder shall furnish a statutory declaration of the circumstances to support the request to amend the mistake.

Correction of mistake in stock ledger.

13. (1) The Registrar shall take all necessary steps to secure specimen signatures of all stockholders. The signatures to all forms lodged at the registry after the application for stock has been received shall be tested by comparison with the specimen signatures.

Signatures of stockholders.

(2) Where any person is unable to sign his name, instruments required for the purpose of these regulations shall be executed by him and attested in such manner as the Registrar may require.

14. Upon satisfying the Registrar as to his identity, a stockholder, or his attorney or agent authorised in writing in that behalf, shall be entitled to inspect his account in the stock ledger at all reasonable times.

Inspection of stock ledger.

15. At the request of a stockholder the Registrar may issue a certificate of inscription of stock in a form approved by the Trust, and such certificate shall be delivered only to the person whose name is inscribed in the stock ledger as holder of the stock for which the certificate is issued, or to his attorney, or to a member of a recognised stock exchange who represents such stockholder, or to a person authorised in writing by the stockholder to take delivery of such certificate.

Certificate of inscription of stock.

Part III.—Transfers and Transmissions of Stock.

Transfers.

16. (1) The Registrar shall keep at the office books to be called "Transfer Books" wherein all transfers or stock or any part thereof shall be entered and registered, which entries shall be numbered in such manner as the Trust shall determine.

(2) A transfer of stock shall be in accordance with Form No. 2 in the schedule, and shall be signed or, in the case of a corporation, unless executed under power of attorney, be properly sealed, by both the transferor and the transferee, each of whom shall be notified of the completion of the transaction.

(3) In the case of a transfer or transmission from or to joint owners it shall be sufficient notice to the joint owners if the person whose name is inscribed first in the stock ledger is notified of the completion of the transaction.

(4) Every party to the transfer shall sign the transfer of stock form in the presence of a witness, who shall be a Justice of the Peace, Commissioner of Affidavits, Commonwealth or State Commissioner for Declarations, notary public, solicitor, member of a recognised Stock Exchange, an officer of the Registry, a bank manager (who shall sign as such and add the bank stamp), or any other person approved by the Registrar. Such witness shall state the capacity in which he has attested the signature.

(5) A person (not being an officer of the Registry) shall not attest the signature to a transfer and acceptance unless the person whose signature he is attesting is personally known to him.

(6) Every transfer shall pass the right to all interest becoming due and payable after the date of registration thereof, so that the Trust shall not be under any necessity to apportion any such interest as between the transferor and the transferee.

Marking of form of transfer of stock.

17. The Registrar may at the request of any owner or his agent mark a form of transfer of stock, that has been properly executed by the owner, with the words "Stock held against this transfer for £.....for a period of fourteen days from.....". Where a form of transfer of stock is so marked the Registrar shall refuse to give effect to any dealing in stock to which the transfer relates, within the period of fourteen days in respect of the amount of the inscription so marked, except on completion of the marked transfer. Nothing in this regulation shall prevent the owner from surrendering to the Registrar a marked form of transfer of stock for cancellation within the period of fourteen days provided that the form of transfer of stock has not been executed by a transferee. A form of transfer of stock may be registered at any time within fourteen days after the time the Registrar has marked it, notwithstanding that the transferor after executing the transfer has died, or has become bankrupt or insolvent, but after the expiry of the period of fourteen days, the Registrar shall refuse to register the transfer if he has had notice of the death, bankruptcy or insolvency of the transferor.

Notice of dealing.

18. The Registrar may, if he deems fit, forward to the stockholder a notice of dealing in the form approved by the Trust on any application received by him relating to stock inscribed in the name of such stockholder, and the Registrar shall not register the transaction unless and until sufficient time has elapsed for a reply to be received.

Transfers to be lodged on a transfer day.

19. Every transfer of stock shall be lodged at the office on a transfer day; the transfer days will be Monday to Friday inclusive in each week between the hours of 10 a.m. and noon, and 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. of each day, except when any of those days fall on a bank holiday.

Entries in stock ledger.

20. (1) As soon as possible after the registration of any transfer or transmission of stock, the amount of stock transferred or transmitted shall be debited in the proper account in the stock ledger and be forthwith credited in that ledger to the account of the person or persons to whom it has been so transferred or transmitted, and the Registrar shall cause the stock ledger to be compared with the transfers and applications to ascertain that all the business transacted has been duly and properly entered and recorded.

(2) Registration shall not be made of any application for transfer, or any other transaction that would affect the balance of stock inscribed, received within fourteen days prior to the date on which interest is due, or during the period of twenty-one days immediately preceding the date of maturity of stock.

21. (1) (a) The executor, administrator or trustee of the estate of a deceased stockholder (not being one of several joint stockholders) shall be the only person recognised by the Trust as having any title to the stock inscribed in the name of the deceased stockholder.

stockholders.

(b) Application for transmission in relation to any such stock shall be made in accordance with regulation 22 of these regulations.

(2) (a) On the death of one of the holders in a joint account relating to stock, the survivor or survivors in the joint account shall be the only person or persons recognised by the Trust as having any title to or interest in the stock.

(b) The death of that joint holder may be proved by the production of probate of his will, letters of administration of his estate or a certificate of his death, supported if required by the Registrar by a statutory declaration that satisfies the Registrar as to the identity of the deceased as such stockholder.

(c) On completion of the proof of death of a joint stockholder in a joint account and on receipt of an application in writing from the survivor or survivors in the joint account, the stock shall be registered in the name of the survivor or survivors.

22. (1) (a) When any stock is to be transmitted in consequence of the death, bankruptcy or insolvency of any stockholder or for any reason other than a transfer under these regulations, an application for registration by transmission shall be lodged with the Registrar.

Transmission
of stock.

(b) The application shall be in accordance with Form No. 3 in the schedule and shall, if the Registrar so requires, be supported by a statutory declaration verifying the particulars contained in the application.

(2) The Registrar shall require the signature of a person who claims transmission of stock by virtue of his appointment as executor, administrator or trustee, to be verified to his satisfaction.

(3) The probate of the will, letters of administration of the estate, or an office copy of the adjudication or order of sequestration or vesting order, as the case may be, or any other document that authorises the transmission under this regulation shall be produced to the Registrar.

(4) The Registrar may require any document produced pursuant to this regulation to be left at the office at least two clear days before the stock to which it relates is dealt with under these regulations.

(5) The Registrar shall enter or cause to be entered particulars of such documents in a register.

23. (1) Where a person dies leaving any stock of an amount not exceeding two hundred pounds the Trust may, on being satisfied that all duty payable in respect thereof under the provisions of the Administration Act, 1903 (as amended) has been paid or that no such duty is payable in respect thereof, dispense with the production of probate of the will or letters of administration of the estate as required by Regulation 21 of these regulations and may authorise the transmission of the stock to such person or persons as appear to the satisfaction of the Trust to be lawfully entitled thereto.

Power of Registrar to dispense with production or re-sealing
of probate.

(2) No person shall have any claim against the Trust in respect of any transmission in pursuance of this regulation, but nothing in this regulation shall relieve the person or persons to whom the stock is transmitted from any liability to account for or deal with the stock as required by law.

(3) A person is not required to re-seal in this State any probate of a will or letters of administration of an estate in order that a transmission of stock may be registered under these regulations if, in respect of the stock, the probate or letters of administration is or are produced to the Registrar together with the certificate of the Commissioner of Probate Duties of this State that no duty is payable under the Administration Act, 1903 (as amended), or his receipt evidencing that all duty payable under that Act has been paid.

Persons entitled to be registered on transmission.

24. (1) A person who becomes entitled to stock by transmission pursuant to these regulations may either himself be registered as the holder of the stock so transmitted, or instead of being himself registered may, with the approval of the Registrar, make such transfer of the stock as the stockholder from whom the same was transmitted could have made, and any such transfer shall be accompanied by such evidence in proof of the title of the transferor as the Registrar may reasonably require.

(2) Where the Registrar is satisfied that stock is inscribed in the name of the person whose property is required by law to be placed in the hands of the Public Trustee or of an officer holding a corresponding position in any other State or of any other officer charged with the duty of administering estates of deceased persons or missing persons or persons under disability (other than bankruptcy or insolvency), the Registrar may (notwithstanding the provisions of regulations 21 and 22 of these regulations) authorise the transmission of the stock to the name of the Public Trustee, the officer holding a corresponding position, or other officer, but before doing so, the Registrar may require a sufficient indemnity from the Public Trustee, the officer holding a corresponding position, or other officer.

Part IV.—Issue of Debentures.

Issue of debentures.

25. (1) All signatures on the face of debentures shall be made in writing.

(2) Where a loan is issued wholly or partly in the form of debentures the transactions relating to the debentures and the coupons attached thereto shall be recorded at the office in a general register of debentures.

(3) There shall be kept at the office, in a form approved by the Trust, records showing particulars of the debentures received, issued, surrendered, cancelled and on hand.

(4) Debentures may be purchased by any person, but if an owner has not attained or does not appear to the Registrar to have attained the age of eighteen years, the Registrar may deliver the debentures to the parent or guardian of the owner, and the receipt of the parent or guardian shall be a valid discharge to the Trust from all actions, suits, claims and demands in respect of the debentures so delivered.

(5) Before any debentures are issued to a purchaser, any overdue interest coupons shall be detached therefrom and cancelled.

(6) Where in any case debentures cannot be handed personally to the owner at the office the Registrar may arrange or cause to be arranged delivery of the debentures through a bank or other agency, and a receipt shall be obtained by the Registrar in exchange for all debentures delivered.

26. (1) Upon the death of a person who is entitled to receive from the Registrar any debentures not exceeding a face value of two hundred pounds, the Registrar may authorise the delivery of the debentures to such person as he thinks fit.

Delivery of debentures not exceeding £200 on behalf of deceased persons.

(2) No person shall have any claim against the Trust in respect of any debentures delivered under this regulation but nothing in this regulation shall relieve the person to whom the debentures are delivered from accounting for or dealing with the debentures as required by law.

27. (1) Upon application in a form approved by the Trust for the issue of debentures in exchange for stock and if the Trust accedes to such application, the Registrar shall debit the applicant's account in the stock ledger and issue to him or his order debentures of the same currency and rate of interest for the amount of the stock debited.

Issue of debentures in exchange for stock.

(2) Where debentures are issued in exchange for stock, the Registrar may demand the surrender of stock certificates or other relevant registry documents in exchange for those debentures.

(3) A receipt for debentures delivered shall be given to the Registrar by the applicant or his attorney or agent.

(4) Debentures shall not be issued in exchange for stock of which a person under the age of eighteen years or a person of unsound mind is the owner jointly with other persons not under legal disability, except in pursuance of an order of a Justice of the High Court or a Judge of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory.

(5) Debentures may be issued in exchange for stock inscribed in the name of a person of unsound mind jointly with other persons not under legal disability, upon receipt of an application in a form approved by the Trust, signed by the Master in Lunacy or such other person as may be authorised under the law of the Commonwealth or of any State or Territory to administer the estate on behalf of the person of unsound mind, and by the joint owners not under legal disability.

(6) Where an order has been made by a Justice of the High Court or a Judge of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory in relation to stock which is inscribed in the name of a person of unsound mind jointly with other persons not under any legal disability, it shall not be necessary for an application approved by the Trust for the issue of debentures in exchange for that stock to be signed by or on behalf of that person of unsound mind.

28. Upon application in a form approved by the Trust, debentures may if the Trust accedes to such application be surrendered at the office in exchange for other debentures of a like amount, of the same currency and bearing the same rate of interest.

Issue of debentures in exchange for other debentures.

29. Upon application in a form approved by the Trust for the inscription of stock in exchange for debentures, and if the Trust accedes to such application, the Registrar shall inscribe stock of the same currency and rate of interest and for the amount of the debentures surrendered, and shall forward a notification of inscription to the person in whose name the stock is inscribed and shall issue a receipt for debentures so surrendered.

Inscription of stock in exchange for debentures.

Part V.—Payment of Interest.

30. The Registrar shall cause the stock ledger and transfer books to be closed for a period not exceeding fourteen days next preceding any of the days on which interest on the stock is payable and the persons who on the day the books are so closed are inscribed as holders of stock shall be entitled to receive the interest next payable thereon.

Stock ledger to be closed.

31. Interest on debentures shall be paid on presentation of interest coupons at the place for payment of interest mentioned in the coupons, except that the first interest due on any debentures may be paid in accordance with the conditions of the prospectus.

Interest on debentures.

Payment of interest on inscribed stock.

32. Interest on stock shall be paid by one of the following methods:—

- (1) Except as hereinafter provided or unless otherwise instructed by the stockholder, payment shall be made to the stockholder, or in the case of a joint account to the stockholder whose name is inscribed first in the stock ledger, by cheque sent by ordinary prepaid letter through the post, addressed to the stockholder at his address last notified to the Registrar before the closing of the stock ledger or to some person nominated in writing by the stockholder. Cheques shall be crossed "not negotiable" and shall be made payable to the order of the payee.
- (2) With the approval of the Trust and at the risk of the stockholder, by payment into an account in a bank within the Commonwealth.
- (3) Where stock is inscribed solely in the name of an infant, interest on such stock may be paid as directed by the stockholder, or at the discretion of the Registrar may be paid to the infant's parent or guardian whose receipt shall be a valid discharge.
- (4) Where stock is inscribed in the name of an infant jointly with one or more other persons, the interest thereon may be paid to the infant jointly with that other person or those other persons, or at the discretion of the Registrar may be paid to the infant's parent or guardian jointly with that other person or those other persons.
- (5) Interest on stock inscribed in the name of an infant, or in the name of a person of unsound mind, jointly with others not under legal disability, may be paid as directed by the stockholders other than those under a disability, and without the concurrence of the infant or person of unsound mind, upon sufficient proof of legal disability being lodged with the Registrar.
- (6) Where, under the conditions of the issue of any loan, the Trust has provided that the first payment of interest on any stock shall be made to the person to whom the stock was originally allotted, the original allottee shall for the purpose of the first payment of interest be deemed to be the stockholder or owner under this regulation.

Receipts of joint stockholders.

33. The receipt of any one stockholder, or of his attorney or agent duly authorised by the stockholder in that behalf, in the case of stock inscribed in more than one name for any interest or for any document relating to such stock, shall be full and sufficient discharge to the Trust in respect thereof but with regard to the payment of principal a discharge shall be given by all stockholders in a joint account.

Part VI.—General.

Powers of attorney.

34. (1) In every case before acting on any power of attorney the Registrar shall require from the attorney a declaration that he has not received notice of revocation of the power of attorney by the death of the donor of the power or otherwise.

(2) The Registrar may act on any power of attorney which in his opinion contains full power to act for any purpose in relation to stock.

(3) The Registrar may require a power of attorney to be left at the registry at least two clear days before it is acted upon.

(4) Particulars of every power of attorney left at the registry for notation shall be entered by the Registrar in a register.

Repayment of principal.

35. Stockholders may by agreement with the Registrar arrange for repayment, when due, of the principal sum into a bank account.

36. (1) The Registrar shall take and observe all possible precautions for the security of the stock to its owner and to guard against fraud or improper transactions. General provisions.

(2) No erasures shall be made in the stock ledger, and errors shall be ruled through and correct entries made.

37. (1) No person other than the officer or officers appointed by the Auditor General to audit transactions, and the Registrar and officers of the Trust immediately engaged on inscribed stock business and approved by the Registrar, shall have access to any books, forms or other records. Secrecy.

(2) All officers so appointed or approved shall not divulge any information coming to their knowledge in the course of their duties, except as necessary in the transaction of business or as required by law.
