2. Assignment of street number

2.1. The Local Government or an authorised person shall assign a street number to each lot in a street, thoroughfare or way in the district in accordance with its policy on street numbering so as to ensure unambiguous and easy identification of every individual lot.

2.2 The Local Government or an authorised person may from time to time assign another street number to a lot instead of that which was previously assigned, including all lots in a street whether previously numbered or not.

3. Street number to be displayed

3.1 The owner or occupier of each lot shall paint or affix and maintain the current street number assigned by the Local Government, in a conspicuous place on the front of the building, letterbox, fence or gate adjacent to the street fronting the lot. 4.3 Where the location of a street number causes confusion or is misleading, or an unauthorised street number is being used or displayed on a lot, the Local Government or an authorised person may serve notice in writing on the owner or occupier of the land.

5. Notices of breach

5.1 Where a breach of any provision of this local law has occurred in relation to street numbering, the Local Government may give a notice in writing to the owner or occupier of that lot ('notice of breach').

5.2 The notice of breach shall—

- a) specify the provision of this Local Law which has been breached;
- b) specify the particulars of the breach; and
- c) state that the owner or occupier of the lot is required to remedy the breach within the time specified in the notice.

5.3 Should an owner or occupier of a lot fail to comply with a notice of breach, the Local Government may by its employees, agents or contractors enter upon the lot to which the notice relates and remedy the breach, and may recover the expenses of so doing from the owner or occupier of the lot in a court of competent jurisdiction.

5.4 A person who fails to comply with a notice issued pursuant to this local law commits an offence.

6. Offences and penalties

6.1 A person who fails to comply with a notice of breach commits an offence and is liable upon conviction to a maximum penalty of $5000 and, if the offence is a continuing offence, a maximum daily penalty of $500.

- b) only straightforward issues of law and fact are involved in determining whether the prescribed offence was committed, and the facts in issue are readily ascertainable.

8. Form of notices

8.1 For the purposes of this local law—
