(PUBLIC NOTARIES) REPORT AND DETERMINATION 2019
LEGAL PROFESSION ACT 2008

LEGAL PROFESSION (SOLICITORS COSTS) REPORT 2019

Made by the Legal Costs Committee under Division 5 of Part 10 of the Legal Profession Act 2008 (Act).

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1. Citation
(1) This Report may be cited as the Legal Profession (Solicitors Costs) Report 2019.
(2) The determination set out in the Schedule to this Report is referred to in this Report as the Legal Profession (Solicitors Costs) Determination 2019.

PART 2—NOTICE AND INQUIRIES

2. Notice under section 278 of the Act
The Legal Costs Committee has complied with the notice provisions of section 278 of the Act.

3. Inquiries and submissions under section 277 of the Act
Before making the Legal Profession (Solicitors Costs) Determination 2019, the Legal Costs Committee—
(a) gave notice under section 277 of the Act;
(b) requested a submission from the Law Society of Western Australia Inc; and
(c) considered the impact of changes in relevant Australian Bureau of Statistics data for the period.

PART 3—REPORT OF THE LEGAL COSTS COMMITTEE’S CONCLUSIONS

4. Maximum hourly rates changed—scale of costs amended
(1) As a result of its inquiries described in clause 3, the Legal Costs Committee is satisfied it is appropriate to continue to adopt hourly rates charged by law practices as the basis for the rates used in the Solicitors Costs Determination 2019. It is also considered appropriate to retain a system of instruction fees as set out in items 1 to 5 of Table A of the Solicitors Costs Determination 2019.
(2) It is the recommendation of the Legal Costs Committee in light of prevailing market and economic considerations, that the hourly rates referred to in subclause 4 (1) be varied from the hourly rates used in the Solicitors Costs Determination 2017 published in the Government Gazette on 20 June 2017. The rates which will apply are set out in Item 7 of Table A of the Legal Profession (Solicitors Costs) Determination 2019.
(3) The Determination of the Legal Costs Committee does not override the entitlement of a law practice to make a written agreement as to costs with a client under the Act.

5. Application
(1) This Determination applies to the maximum remuneration of law practices in respect of any work carried out by a law practice not being of a contentious nature and which is not governed by any other determination of the Legal Costs Committee under section 275 of the Act.
(2) This Determination does not apply to the remuneration of law practices based on a written agreement as to costs with a client under the Act.
(3) This Determination does not apply to the remuneration of law practices based on costs incurred before the commencement of this Determination.

6. Costs
Unless a law practice has made a written agreement as to costs with a client under the provisions of the Act, the costs payable by the client to the client’s law practice shall not exceed an amount that is reasonable in the circumstances, that amount to be calculated on the basis of—
(a) the instruction fees and other fees for specific items set out in items 1 to 6; and
(b) the time reasonably taken to perform the work referred to in item 7, charged at an hourly rate that does not exceed the hourly rates set out in that item; or
(c) where clause 14 applies, the skill, urgency or complexity required to perform the work, together with the time reasonably taken to do so.

7. Instruction fee when acting for both parties to a transaction
Subject to clauses 8 and 9, where a law practice lawfully acts for both parties to a transaction, the law practice is entitled to charge each party the relevant instruction fee relating to that transaction.

8. Instruction fees for related transactions
(1) Subject to this clause, where a law practice acts for either a buyer-mortgagor or for a seller-mortgagee, the law practice may charge either the instruction fee fixed in relation to the sale or the instruction fee fixed in relation to the security, but not both.
(2) Where a law practice acts for a seller in circumstances to which item 5 applies, and the consideration or part thereof is secured by a security prepared by the same law practice and executed by the buyer in favour of the seller, the law practice shall be entitled to charge in respect of the sale the fee set out in item 5 reduced by 25%, and for instructions in respect of the security the instruction fee calculated in accordance with item 3 on the basis of the sum secured.
(3) Where, in respect of one and the same transaction, a law practice lawfully acts for both a buyer-mortgagor and a seller-mortgagee—
(a) if all the costs are to be paid by only one of the parties, the law practice is entitled to charge the instruction fee in relation to the sale, calculated on the basis that the law practice was acting for the buyer, but is not entitled to charge an instruction fee in relation to the security;
(b) if each party is to pay their own instruction fee, the law practice is entitled to charge each party an amount so that the aggregate of the amounts payable by each is no greater than the instruction fee in relation to the sale, calculated on the basis that the law practice was acting for the buyer.

(4) Where, in one and the same transaction, a law practice lawfully acts for both the seller and the buyer or for both the mortgagor and the mortgagee, the law practice is not entitled to charge in respect of the instructions any amount which is greater in the aggregate than the instruction fee in relation to the sale or the security, calculated on the basis that the law practice was acting for the buyer or the mortgagor, as the case may be.

(5) Where a law practice acts for the mortgagor on instructions to extend the term of the security, the law practice is entitled to charge, for instructions, an amount not exceeding 40% of the instruction fee that would be payable in relation to an original security for the same amount as that secured by the security as extended.

9. Instruction fees for leases

(1) Where a law practice lawfully acts for both the lessor and the lessee in respect of a lease or an extension of lease, the law practice is entitled to charge for instructions only the instruction fee set out in item 4 in relation to a lessor.

(2) For the purposes of calculating the instructions fees set out in item 4—
   (a) where a term of a lease exceeds 12 years but does not exceed 26 years, the instruction fee shall be calculated on the basis of the rent payable during the first 12 years of the lease;
   (b) where the term of the lease exceeds 26 years, the instruction fee shall be calculated on the basis of the rent payable during the first 15 years of the lease,
   and for this purpose the term “rent”—
   (c) includes any moneys payable as a premium for the granting of the lease;
   (d) but does not include any moneys payable or reserved under or by the lease in respect of—
      (i) rates and taxes whether by way of reimbursement of the lessor or otherwise; or
      (ii) expenditure incurred by the lessor in the conduct or management of the lease and premises or of any other property of which the leased premises forms part.

10. Limitations on instruction fee in item 3

In relation to an instruction fee set out in item 3—
   (a) any amount secured by an existing collateral security prepared by the same law practice within one year prior to the instructions shall be deducted from the amount to be secured before calculating the instruction fee; and
   (b) where the security is for an annuity and the term during which the annuity is to be paid is a period exceeding 12 years or for life—the instruction fee shall be calculated on the basis that the amount secured is 12 times either the annual payment or the average of the first 12 payments.

11. Uncompleted business

Where any business is not completed the instruction fee payable shall be the proportion of the relevant instruction fee payable under this Determination as is reasonable in the circumstances.

12. Services related to item 5

(1) The fees set out in item 5 are the remuneration payable in respect of acting on instructions for the completion by transfer of an executed contract for the sale of land registered under the Transfer of Land Act 1893 and include the fees for all services usually performed in respect of the transaction and in particular—
   (a) the investigation of title;
   (b) enquiries of and advice to all rating and taxing authorities of change of ownership;
   (c) the adjustment of rates and taxes;
   (d) preparation, execution, stamping and the registration of the transfer; and
   (e) the arrangements for and attendances on settlement including the discharge of encumbrances, but the remuneration does not include the fees for—

   (f) any service performed or rendered in respect of an amendment to the contract of sale;
   (g) the perusal of any document other than the contract of sale;
   (h) the preparation of any document other than the transfer;
   (i) requisitions on title or answers thereto;
   (j) correspondence or attendances as may be rendered necessary by the amendment to, or the preparation of, any document other than the transfer;
   (k) correspondence or attendances not usually involved in respect of completion of the contract of sale including interpretation of or enforcement of the contract of sale; or any costs or expenses lawfully incurred due to the distance of the law practice from the place of settlement or from an office of the Western Australian Land Information Authority, established under the Western Australian Land Authority Act 1992.

(2) Where a law practice acting on instructions to which item 5 applies is obliged to perform additional services which are not services to which item 5 applies, the law practice is entitled to charge for those additional services at the rate set out in item 7.

13. Preparing documents and copies for execution, photocopying, facsimile and electronic transmissions—item 6

The fees set out in items 601 and 602 are fees in addition to time taken to prepare documents, including amendments to drafts or standard documents, and—

(a) in the case of item 601, the fee is intended to recognise the cost to, and time taken by, a law practice in the preparation and maintenance of standard precedents; by way of example, a standard office lease, shop lease, assignment of lease, extension of lease and mortgage; and

(b) in the case of item 602, the fee is intended to recognise the cost to, and time taken by a law practice in the preparation, availability and maintenance of a document which is not a standard precedent within item 601, and the skill, cost of preparation and maintenance of having that document available.

14. Complex matters and matters involving a high degree of skill or urgency

Where a law practice acts on instructions or performs a service in respect of a matter—

(a) in relation to which a fee or rate of remuneration is set out under items 1 to 6, that is complex, or involves a high degree of skill or urgency; or

(b) that is not referred to in any of items 1 to 6,

then, notwithstanding the rates in item 7, the law practice is entitled to charge a fee, or charge at a rate (as the case requires) that is greater than one set out in an item, if it is reasonable in the circumstances.

15. Effect on costs of Goods and Services Tax (GST)

The hourly rates and the calculation of fees under each of the items in Table A are inclusive of GST. If any amount calculated under items 1 to 4 is not divisible by 11, it should be rounded up to the next highest amount which is divisible by 11.

(2) The reference to Restricted Practitioner in this Determination includes practitioners undertaking restricted legal practice for the purposes of obtaining the required experience set out in section 50 of the Act and does not include a reference to an Australian legal practitioner who has a condition placed on their practising certificate by the Legal Practice Board, State Administrative Tribunal or otherwise, requiring them to practise under supervision for disciplinary, medical or other reasons.

Travel
705 Time spent travelling by a law practice is to be charged at no more than one half of the rates contained in items 701 to 704, with a maximum of 8 hours in any one day.
