(2AB) An electrical contractor commits an offence if the electrical contractor makes a record for the purposes of subregulation (2AA)(c) that is false or misleading.

- (3) Delete regulation 52(2a) and insert:

(2B) A notice of completion is to contain a declaration, signed or executed by the electrical contractor who prepared the notice of completion —

- (a) that the notifiable work to which the notice applies has been checked and tested and is safe and complies with these regulations; or
- (b) if subregulation (2C) applies — that the whole of the electrical installation has been checked and tested and is safe and complies with these regulations.

(2C) This subregulation applies if the notifiable work to which the notice of completion applies —

- (a) is carried out to connect a transportable structure, or to make a transportable structure

- ready for connection, to a supply of electricity;
and
- (b) is carried out after the transportable structure is moved to the site at which it is to be connected to the supply of electricity.
- (2D) The electrical contractor must, in relation to a declaration referred to in subregulation (2B) —
- (a) make a record of each test, inspection and verification carried out in accordance with the Australian/New Zealand Wiring Rules that was performed on the electrical installation and the results of the tests; and
- (b) must keep the record for the period of 5 years after the completion of the notifiable work.

16. Regulation 52A amended

- (1) In regulation 52A(3) delete “If an electrical contractor delivers a notice under subregulation (2)(a) or (b),” and insert:

If a notice is delivered under subregulation (2)(a) or (b) by, or on behalf of, an electrical contractor,

- (2) Delete regulation 52A(4) to (6) and insert:
- (5) A person commits an offence if the person delivers a preliminary notice or a notice of completion that is false or misleading.
- (6) An electrical contractor commits an offence if the electrical contractor delivers a notice of completion for notifiable work that was not carried out, or caused to be carried out, by or under the direction of the electrical contractor.

if the electrical installation on which the work was carried out —

- (a) is in use; or
  - (b) is connected to transmission or distribution works or a private generating plant or can be connected to transmission or distribution works or a private generating plant without the use of tools; or
  - (c) is ready for connection to transmission or distribution works or a private generating plant.
- (3) In regulation 52B(4A)(e) delete “plug”.
- (4) Delete regulation 52B(4B) and insert:
- (4B) An electrical contractor commits an offence if the electrical contractor makes a record for the purposes of subregulation (3)(c) that is false or misleading.
- (5) Delete regulation 52B(7) and insert:
- (7) A person commits an offence if the person delivers an electrical safety certificate that is false or misleading.
- (8) A person commits an offence if the person delivers an electrical safety certificate in respect of electrical installing work that —
- (a) has not been completed; or
  - (b) is unsafe or does not comply with these regulations.
- (9) A person commits an offence if the person signs or executes an electrical safety certificate in respect of electrical installing work and the person is not —
- (a) the electrical contractor who carried out the work or caused the work to be carried out; or
  - (b) a licensed electrical worker authorised under subregulation (5) to complete the electrical safety certificate on behalf of the electrical contractor.
- (10) It is a defence in proceedings for an offence against subregulation (9)(b) for a licensed electrical worker charged to prove that, at the time of signing or executing the electrical safety certificate, the licensed electrical worker believed on reasonable grounds that —
- (a) the electrical installing work was carried out under the authority of an electrical contractor’s licence; and

- (b) the licensed electrical worker was authorised under subregulation (5) to complete the electrical safety certificate on behalf of the electrical contractor.

18. Regulation 52BA inserted

After regulation 52B insert:

52BA. Transportable structures: when compliance with regulations 51, 52 and 52B not required

- (1) Subregulation (2) applies if an electrical contractor carries out electrical installing work, or causes electrical installing work to be carried out, in respect of a transportable structure that is at a site for the purposes of its construction or for otherwise preparing it to be moved to another site at which it will be connected to a supply of electricity.
- (2) If this subregulation applies, the electrical contractor is not required to comply with regulation 51, 52 or 52B in respect of the electrical installing work.
- (3) Nothing in this regulation limits an electrical contractor's obligation to comply with these regulations in relation to electrical installing work carried out, or caused to be carried out, by the electrical contractor in respect of a transportable structure at a site at which the structure is, or is intended to be, connected to a supply of electricity.

19. Regulation 53 amended

In regulation 53(1) delete "52B" and insert:

52B, 52BA

20. Regulation 54 amended

After regulation 54(1) insert:

- (1A) It is a defence in proceedings for an offence against subregulation (1) for a licensed electrical worker charged to prove that, at the time the licensed electrical worker signed the notice of completion, the licensed electrical worker believed on reasonable grounds that —
  - (a) the electrical installing work was carried out under the authority of an electrical contractor's licence held by the electrical contractor concerned; and

- (b) the licensed electrical worker was a nominee in respect of the licence held by the electrical contractor concerned.
- (1B) An electrical contractor whose electrical contractor's licence is cancelled or suspended under these regulations commits an offence if the electrical contractor causes or permits a person who was, immediately before the licence was suspended or cancelled, a nominee in respect of the licence to sign a notice of completion that is delivered under regulation 52 in respect of electrical installing work carried out, or caused to be carried out, by the electrical contractor.
- (1C) For the purposes of subregulation (1B), an electrical contractor is taken to have caused or permitted a person to sign a notice of completion if, at the time the person signed the notice of completion, the electrical contractor had failed to notify the person under regulation 47C of the cancellation or suspension of the electrical contractor's licence.
