LOCAL GOVERNMENT

LG301*

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT 1995

Town of Port Hedland

Local Law

Holiday Cabins and Chalets

In pursuance of the powers conferred upon it by the abovementioned Act, and of all other powers enabling it, the Town of Port Hedland hereby records having resolved on 19th January 2000 to make the following local law—

1. These Local Laws may be cited as the Town of Port Hedland Local Law (Holiday Cabins and Chalets).
2. In these local laws unless the contrary intention appears—
 - “local law” means one of these local laws;
 - “Council” means the Council of the Town of Port Hedland;
 - “group” means a group of holiday cabins or chalets;
 - “holiday cabin or chalet” means a cabin or chalet that is held out in the course of, or for the purposes of, a trade or business as being available for use for holiday purposes by the public at large or that is made available for use for holiday purposes;
 - “unit” means the separate occupancy of a living unit in one of a group of holiday cabins or chalets.
3. After application is made in writing the council may approve and register the establishment and maintenance or the conduct of a holiday cabin or chalet within its district.
4. Registration by the council pursuant to local law 3 is granted to a specified person in respect to a specified site and is not transferable.
 - (a) Council may make an annual fee for the registration of holiday cabins or chalets.
5. Subject to local law 8, a person shall not establish, maintain or conduct a holiday cabin or chalet unless—
 - (a) it has been approved and registered by the council;
 - (b) it is one of a group of at least four holiday cabins or chalets (holiday cabins under four are exempt from this control).
 - (c) the group and appurtenances occupy the site specified in the grant of registration; and
 - (d) the buildings and appurtenances of the group are so constructed and maintained in compliance with the Building Code of Australia; and—
 - (i) open space is provided for the exclusive use of the occupants of the group at the rate of 100 square metres per unit and in addition parking space is provided at the rate of 17 metres per unit.
 - (ii) each living unit has a minimum floor area of 24 square metres;
 - (iii) each unit has within it a kitchen or alcove where food may be prepared and which is fitted with a cooking stove/microwave oven and a sink with running water laid onto it;
 - (iv) each unit has a hand wash-basin with running water laid on to it;
 - (v) a shower-room or bathroom with a hand wash-basin shall be provided in each unit;
 - (vi) there is one common laundry for each eight units or part of eight units;

- (vii) in the group the minimum area for a laundry in which the equipment comprises not more than a double wash trough and a washing machine is 3.9 square metres and for any other laundry 4.7 square metres;
 - (viii) in association with the laundry facilities there are drying facilities consisting of sufficient clothes hoists or lines or clothes drying machine to provide, to the satisfaction of the council, for the reasonable needs of the persons resident on the site;
 - (ix) hot water is provided as specified by the Council;
 - (x) every electrical apparatus or wiring for lighting or heating or power supply or application of electricity on the site is approved by the Electricity Authority (Western Power) pursuant to the provisions of the Electricity Act Regulations, 1947 and conforms to the wiring rules of the Standards Association of Australia;
 - (xi) provision is made for liquid waste disposal in accordance with Health Act;
 - (xii) there is a supply of potable water sufficient to provide a minimum of 500 litres to each unit each day;
 - (xiii) sufficient rubbish receptacles and access for each unit, placed within 10.5 metres of the unit, and emptied at least once in each week and as frequently as necessary to prevent the creation of a nuisance.
6. Subject to local law 7, a person shall not use or occupy and a person shall not permit another person to use or occupy a unit or more than one unit in the same group for an aggregate period exceeding 90 days in any period of 12 months.
7. In special circumstances the council may extend the aggregate period of occupancy referred to in local law 6 to 120 days, in any period of twelve months.
8. Where a holiday cabin or chalet was established, maintained or conducted before the commencement of these local laws and does not conform to the requirements of the local laws, the council may register it as a holiday cabin or chalet but shall not register it for more than one year at a time.
9. Where a council registers a holiday cabin or chalet pursuant to local law 8, it may impose conditions to be complied with by the person registered pursuant to local law 4 of the persons conducting it or in occupation, possession or control of it. Registration shall lapse at the 30 June in each year and a further application shall be lodged within 21 days.
10. The council may, with the consent of the Minister and, notwithstanding conditions imposed under local law 9, subject to such conditions as The Minister may impose, extend the total period of registration referred to in local law 8 beyond the period of three years.
11. The council may by writing served on a grantee of registration of a holiday cabin or chalet under these local laws revoke or suspend for any period any registration so granted in any of the following circumstances—
- (a) if the council is satisfied the grantee is not a fit and proper person to be so registered;
 - (b) if the council is satisfied that the holiday cabin or chalet, the subject of the registration, is no longer suitable for use or occupation for holiday purposes;
 - (c) if the person registered pursuant to local law 4, the person conducting the holiday cabin or chalet, or the person in possession, occupation or control of it makes default or permits or suffers default to be made in the due observance of, or in compliance with, any condition subject to which the registration is granted or commits a breach of any of these local laws.

And any such revocation or suspension shall be additional to any penalty in respect of the holiday cabin or chalet to which the grantee or any other person is liable pursuant to these local laws.

12. Where the Council refuses to grant registration of a holiday cabin or chalet or revokes or suspends registration, a person aggrieved may appeal in compliance with the provisions of the Local Government Act 1995.
13. A person who commits a breach of these local laws is liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 for each breach and also to a daily penalty of not more than $100 for each breach.
14. The Town of Port Hedland Local Laws relating to Holiday Cabins and Chalets gazetted on 4 June 1970 and amended from time to time are repealed.
