Local Government Act 1995

Local Government (Constitution) Regulations 1998

Made by the Governor in Executive Council.

Part 1 — Preliminary

1. Citation

These regulations may be cited as the Local Government (Constitution) Regulations 1998.

2. Interpretation

In these regulations, unless the contrary intention appears —

“Form” means a Form in Schedule 1;

“section” means a section of the Local Government Act 1995.

Part 2 — Districts and wards

Division 1 — Orders under section 2.1

3. Interpretation

- (1) If there is a reference in a provision in this Part to a district described as “district A” then a reference in that provision to “local government A” is a reference to the local government of district A.
- (2) Subregulation (1), with necessary changes, applies in respect of other districts similarly described.

4. Creating a new district: consequences

- (1) This regulation applies if an order is made under section 2.1 declaring an area of the State to be a district.
- (2) The first general meeting of the electors of the district is to be held under section 5.27 after the local government of the district accepts the annual report for its first financial year.

5. Changing district boundaries: consequences

- (1) In this regulation —
 “commencement” means the commencement of the order referred to in subregulation (2).
- (2) This regulation applies if an order is made under section 2.1 changing the boundaries of a district (“district A”).
- (3) If as a result of the order the whole of the area of a ward of district A is severed from it, then on commencement —
 - (a) the ward is abolished; and
 - (b) the number of offices of councillor on the council of local government A is reduced by the number of offices of councillor for the ward.
- (4) If as a result of the order the area of district A incorporates a part of the area of another district (which is not abolished) (“district B”), then on commencement —
 - (a) if under section 4.32 a person has, in respect of rateable property in that part of district B, made an enrolment eligibility claim that has been accepted and still has effect under section 4.33 immediately before commencement —
 - (i) the claim is to be taken to have been made and accepted in respect of district A on the day on which it was accepted in respect of district B; and
 - (ii) for the purposes of section 4.33, any ordinary elections of local government B held after the

- claim was so accepted are to be treated as if they had been held by local government A;
- (b) the method of valuation of land used by local government B as a basis for a rate in respect of land in that part of district B immediately before commencement becomes the method of valuation to be used by local government A in respect of that land;
 - (c) if immediately before commencement that part of district B is subject to a town planning scheme that is in force under the Town Planning and Development Act 1928 —
 - (i) the scheme has effect in respect of that part as if it were a scheme prepared by local government A in respect of that part, approved by the Minister under that Act, and published under that Act on commencement;
 - (ii) in so far as the scheme applies to that part, local government A is taken to be the responsible authority for the purposes of that Act; and
 - (iii) in so far as the scheme applies to that part, a reference in the scheme to local government B is to be taken to be a reference to local government A;
 - (d) if a matter or procedure under a written law in relation to any land in that part of district B has not been completed before commencement, any function performed in respect of that land under that law before commencement, whether by local government B or another person, has effect as if it had been performed by local government A or that other person and the matter or procedure may be completed by local government A or that other person; and
 - (e) actions and proceedings by or against local government B are not affected.

6. Abolishing a district: consequences

- (1) In this regulation —
“commencement” means the commencement of the order referred to in subregulation (2).
- (2) This regulation applies if an order is made under section 2.1 abolishing a district (“district A”).
- (3) On commencement —
 - (a) local government A is disestablished;
 - (b) all offices of members of the council of local government A cease to exist.
- (4) If on commencement the whole of the area of district A is included in the area of one other district (“district B”), whether by means of a boundary change to an existing district or by means of a declaration of a new district, then on commencement —

- (a) the property, rights and liabilities of local government A become those of the local government B;
- (b) if under section 4.32 a person has, in respect of rateable property in district A, made an enrolment eligibility claim that has been accepted and still has effect under section 4.33 immediately before commencement —
 - (i) the claim is to be taken to have been made and accepted in respect of district B on the day on which it was accepted in respect of district A; and
 - (ii) for the purposes of section 4.33, any ordinary elections of local government A held after the claim was so accepted are to be treated as if they had been held by local government B;
- (c) the method of valuation of land used by local government A as a basis for a rate in respect of land in district A immediately before commencement becomes the method of valuation to be used by local government B in respect of that land;
- (d) if immediately before commencement any land in district A is subject to a town planning scheme that is in force under the Town Planning and Development Act 1928 —
 - (i) the scheme has effect in respect of that area as if it were a scheme prepared by local government B in respect of that area, approved by the Minister under that Act, and published under that Act on commencement;
 - (ii) in so far as the scheme applies to that area, local government B is taken to be the responsible authority for the purposes of that Act; and
 - (iii) in so far as the scheme applies to that area, a reference in the scheme to local government A is to be taken to be a reference to local government B;
- (e) if a matter or procedure under a written law in relation to any land in district A has not been completed before commencement, any function performed in respect of that land under that law before commencement, whether by local government A or another person, has effect as if it had been performed by local government B or that other person and the matter or procedure may be completed by local government B or that other person;

- (f) if a matter or procedure under a written law has not been completed by local government A before commencement, the matter or procedure may be completed by local government B;
 - (g) a person who, immediately before commencement, has a contract of employment with local government A, is to be taken to have an identical contract of employment with local government B;
 - (h) a person who, immediately before commencement, holds an appointment made under a written law by local government A for the purposes of enforcing or administering that written law, becomes a person appointed by local government B for those purposes;
 - (i) a reference in any instrument, contract, written law, or proceedings made or commenced before commencement to local government A shall be read and construed as a reference to local government B;
 - (j) actions and other proceedings commenced by or against local government A and pending immediately before commencement may be continued by or against local government B; and
 - (k) actions and other proceedings which could have been brought by or against local government A may be brought by or against local government B.
- (5) If on commencement, a part of the area of district A is included in the area of another district (“district B”), whether by means of a boundary change to an existing district or by means of a declaration of a new district, then on commencement —
- (a) if under section 4.32 a person has, in respect of rateable property in that part of district A, made an enrolment eligibility claim that has been accepted and still has effect under section 4.33 immediately before commencement —
 - (i) the claim is to be taken to have been made and accepted in respect of district B on the day on which it was accepted in respect of district A; and
 - (ii) for the purposes of section 4.33, any ordinary elections of local government A held after the claim was so accepted are to be treated as if they had been held by local government B;
 - (b) the method of valuation of land used by local government A as a basis for a rate in respect of land in that part of district A immediately before commencement becomes the method of valuation to be used by local government B in respect of that land;

- (c) if immediately before commencement that part of district A is subject to a town planning scheme that is in force under the Town Planning and Development Act 1928 —
 - (i) the scheme has effect in respect of that part as if it were a scheme prepared by local government B in respect of that part, approved by the Minister under that Act, and published under that Act on commencement;
 - (ii) in so far as the scheme applies to that part, local government B is taken to be the responsible authority for the purposes of that Act; and
 - (iii) in so far as the scheme applies to that part, a reference in the scheme to local government A is to be taken to be a reference to local government B;
- (d) if a matter or procedure under a written law in relation to any land in that part of district A has not been completed before commencement, any function performed in respect of that land under that law before commencement, whether by local government A or another person, has effect as if it had been performed by local government B or that other person and the matter or procedure may be completed by local government B or that other person;
- (e) actions and other proceedings commenced by or against local government A in relation to any land, or in relation to a matter that occurred on any land, in that part of district A and pending immediately before commencement may be continued by or against local government B; and
- (f) actions and other proceedings which could have been brought by or against local government A in relation to any land, or in relation to a matter that occurred on any land, in that part of district A may be brought by or against local government B.

7. Effect of section 2.1 order on local laws

- (1) In this regulation —
 - “commencement” means the commencement of the order referred to in subregulation (2).
- (2) If as a result of an order made under section 2.1 an area of the State is declared to be a district (“district A”) and the area includes —
 - (a) a part of the area of a district (“district B”) the boundaries of which are changed by the order;
 - (b) the whole, or a part, of the area of a district (“district C”) that is abolished by the order; or

- (c) a combination of the areas described in paragraphs (a) and (b),

then on commencement —

- (d) the local laws that applied in that part of the area of district B immediately before the commencement continue to apply in respect of that part of the area of district B that is included in district A;
- (e) the local laws that applied in the whole, or that part, of the area of district C immediately before the commencement continue to apply in respect of the whole, or that part, of the area of district C that is included in district A;
- (f) the local laws of local government C continue to apply in respect of the whole, or that part, of the area of district C that is included in district A; and
- (g) the local laws of local governments B and C, in so far as they continue to apply in respect of those areas —
 - (i) are to be administered and enforced by local government A; and
 - (ii) subject to Division 2 of Part 3 of the Act, may be amended or repealed by local government A, as if they were local laws of local government A.

Division 2 — Matters under Schedules 2.1 and 2.2 to the Act

12. Disqualification for membership; serious local government offences (s. 2.22)

For the purposes of the definition of “serious local government offence” in section 2.22(3) —

- (a) the period referred to in paragraph (a) of the definition is —
 - (i) 2 years in the case of an offence against the Act; or
 - (ii) 3 months in the case of an offence against the former provisions;
- and
- (b) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) of the definition is —
 - (i) $10 000 in the case of an offence against the Act; or
 - (ii) $5 000 in the case of an offence against the former provisions.

13. Oaths, affirmations and declarations (ss. 2.29, 2.42)

- (1) For the purposes of sections 2.29 and 2.42 —
 - (a) the form of the oath of allegiance is that in Form 5;
 - (b) the form of the affirmation of allegiance is that in Form 6;
 - (c) the form of declaration for a mayor, president, deputy mayor, deputy president or councillor is that in Form 7;
 - (d) the form of declaration for a commissioner is that in Form 8.
- (2) An oath, affirmation or declaration required by section 2.29 to be taken or made by a person elected as a mayor or president is to be taken or made before —
 - (a) the immediate predecessor of the person in the office of mayor or president; or
 - (b) an authorized person.
- (3) An oath, affirmation or declaration required by section 2.29 to be taken or made by a person elected as a councillor, deputy mayor or deputy president is to be taken or made before an authorized person.

- (4) An oath, affirmation or declaration required by section 2.42 to be taken or made by a person appointed as a commissioner is to be taken or made before an authorized person.
- (5) In this regulation —
“authorized person” means a person before whom a statutory declaration can be made under section 2 of the Declarations and Attestations Act 1913.

Part 4 — Miscellaneous

14. Transitional provision: Certain council members (s. 9.71)

- (1) To avoid doubt it is declared that for the purposes of the application of Part 2, Division 5 of the Act and section 2.32 to —
- (a) the remainder of the term of office of a member of council referred to in clause 6 of Schedule 9.3; or
 - (b) the term of office of a member of council elected at an election referred to in clause 13 of Schedule 9.3,
- the member is to be regarded as being an elector of the district so long as he or she continues to —
- (c) reside in the district; or
 - (d) be, within the meaning of the former provisions, the owner or occupier of rateable property in the district.
- (2) In subregulation (1) —
- “former provisions” means the Local Government Act 1960 as in force immediately before the day on which the Local Government Act 1995 came into operation.

15. Local Government (Constitution) Regulations 1996 repealed

The Local Government (Constitution) Regulations 1996 are repealed.
