Part 5A — Family law property settlements

219A. Interpretation

- (1) In this Part —
- “ex-spouse”, in relation to a Member in relation to whose superannuation interest a splitting instrument has been served on the Board, means the other party to the marriage in relation to which the splitting instrument was made;

“splitting instrument” means —

- (a) a splitting order; or
- (b) a superannuation agreement that provides for a payment split; or
- (c) a flag lifting agreement that provides for a payment split;

“superannuation interest” means a superannuation interest (as defined in the Family Law Act section 90MD) in a scheme under the Act other than an unsplitable interest;

“value”, in relation to the superannuation interest of an ex-spouse, means the value of that interest determined in accordance with the Family Law (Superannuation) Regulations 2001 (Commonwealth) regulation 14G.

(2) In this Part the following terms each have the meaning given in the Family Law Act section 90MD —

- (a) “flag lifting agreement”;
- (b) subject to subregulation (3), “operative time”;
- (c) “payment split”;
- (d) “splitting order”;
- (e) “superannuation agreement”;
- (f) “unsplitable interest”.

(3) If —

- (a) a splitting instrument is served on the Board before 1 February 2008; and
- (b) the time that would, but for this subregulation, be the operative time in relation to that splitting instrument is before 1 February 2008, then the operative time in relation to that splitting instrument is 1 February 2008.

219B. Application of Part

This Part applies in relation to a Member if the Board is served with a splitting instrument that relates to the superannuation interest of the Member.

219C. Clean break at operative time

If this Part applies in relation to a Member, at the operative time —

- (a) the Member’s ex-spouse becomes entitled to a superannuation interest of an amount equal to the value of the ex-spouse's entitlement in respect of the Member's superannuation interest at the operative time; and

- (b) there is a corresponding reduction in value of the Member's superannuation interest.

219D. New interest for ex-spouse

- (1) The value of the ex-spouse's entitlement under regulation 219C(a) is to be determined in accordance with the Family Law (Superannuation) Regulations 2001 (Commonwealth) regulation 14G.
- (2) When an ex-spouse becomes entitled to a superannuation interest under regulation 219C(a) the Board is to transfer to the fund determined under subregulation (3) an amount equal to —
 - (a) the value of the ex-spouse's entitlement; less
 - (b) any fees payable by the ex-spouse under the Family Law Act section 90MY.
- (3) The superannuation fund to which the amount is to be transferred is —
 - (a) if —
 - (i) the ex-spouse has nominated a superannuation fund to which the amount is to be transferred; and
 - (ii) the Board is able to transfer the amount to that fund,that fund; or
 - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply and the ex-spouse is a member of the West State scheme in respect of whom transfers to that scheme may be accepted, that scheme; or
 - (c) if neither paragraph (a) nor (b) apply, GESB Superannuation within the meaning given in section 42(1) of the Act.
- (4) A nomination for the purposes of subregulation (3)(a) must be made in writing to the Board within 28 days (or such longer period as the Board allows) of the ex-spouse being requested by the Board to nominate a fund.

219E. Reduction of Member's interest to be apportioned

If a Member whose superannuation interest is reduced under regulation 219C(b) is a member of 2 or more schemes, the reduction is to be apportioned proportionately between the Member's superannuation interests in each scheme in which he or she is a member, unless the splitting instrument provides otherwise.

219F. Reduction of interest in accumulation scheme

- (1) In this regulation —
“accumulation scheme” means the West State Super Scheme, GESB Super Scheme, Retirement Income Scheme, Term Allocated Pension Scheme or Retirement Access Scheme.
- (2) If the value of a Member’s superannuation interest in an accumulation scheme is reduced under regulation 219C(b), the balance in the Member’s account in that scheme is reduced by an amount equal to the value of the ex-spouse’s entitlement under regulation 219C(a).

219G. Reduction of interest in Gold State Super Scheme

- (1) If the value of a Member’s superannuation interest in the Gold State Super Scheme is reduced under regulation 219C(b) the value of the reduction is to be calculated by the actuary and may be effected —
 - (a) by the deduction of a monetary amount, with or without interest; or
 - (b) by the reduction by a specified amount of the multiple of final remuneration used to calculate the Member’s superannuation interest; or
 - (c) in any other manner agreed between the actuary and the Board.
- (2) If the Member is a Part 1 Member within the meaning of Schedule 2 Part 1 clause 1(1), the reduction is to be apportioned proportionally between —
 - (a) the Member’s superannuation interest to the extent that it arises under Part 2 of these regulations; and
 - (b) the Member’s superannuation interest to the extent that it arises under Schedule 2 Part 1.
- (3) If the Member is a Part 6 Member within the meaning of Schedule 2 Part 6 clause 17, the reduction is to be apportioned proportionally between —
 - (a) the Member’s superannuation interest to the extent that it arises under Part 2 of these regulations; and
 - (b) the Member’s superannuation interest to the extent that it arises under Schedule 2 Part 6.

219H. Notice of clean break

- (1) When the Board transfers an amount under regulation 219D in respect of a Member’s ex-spouse the Board must —
 - (a) give the ex-spouse a notice setting out the matters mentioned in subregulation (2); and

- (b) give the Member a notice setting out the matters mentioned in subregulation (3).
- (2) The notice to the ex-spouse must set out —
 - (a) that the new interest has been created; and
 - (b) the value of that interest and how that value was calculated; and
 - (c) the fund to which the transfer under regulation 219D(2) was made; and
 - (d) if the transfer was made to GESB Superannuation in accordance with regulation 219D(3)(c), details of how the trustee of that fund can be contacted.
- (3) The notice to the Member must set out —
 - (a) that a new interest has been created for the ex-spouse and that a corresponding reduction has been made to the Member's interest; and
 - (b) the value of the ex-spouse's interest and how that value was calculated; and
 - (c) the amount by which, or the manner in which, the Member's interest has been reduced.

NEW PUBLICATIONParliament: Mirror of the People?
Members of the Parliament of Western Australia 1890–2007

Are our parliaments broadly representative of the people who elect them? How accurately do our elected members of Parliament reflect the views and values of their constituents? And who are our members, where do they come from and how do they get to Parliament?

These are some of the questions the authors, Phillip Pental, David Black and Harry Phillips, seek to answer in Parliament: Mirror of the People? They examine the lives, the experiences, the educational backgrounds, the occupations and other influences on those who have been elected to the Parliament of Western Australia since responsible government was granted in 1890.

The book is written in a lively style that will appeal to the casual reader as well as the historian.
