Mining on Private Property Act 1898

An Act to permit mining on private property.

[1-55 Deleted: No. 15 of 1904 s. 4.]

[Heading deleted: No. 19 of 2010 s. 44(3).]

56. The Hampton Lands and Railway Syndicate, Limited

It is declared as follows: —

- (a) By an agreement, in writing, dated 18 June 1890, made between Sir Frederick Napier Broome, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Governor of the Colony of Western Australia, acting therein for and on behalf of the Government of the said Colony of the one part and the Hampton Lands and Railway Syndicate, Limited, of the other part, it was agreed that the Government should sell and the Syndicate should purchase 216,000 acres of Crown Lands on the terms and conditions in the said agreement mentioned:
- (b) The said purchase was duly completed by the said Syndicate:
- (c) It was one of the terms of the said agreement that the Government should grant to the Syndicate on its application a permit to work all the metals reserved by the Crown Grants of the said lands in accordance with the regulations authorising such permit:
- (d) The lands which were granted to the said Syndicate, under the said agreement, are those set forth in the Schedule hereto, and the same are now held in fee simple by the said Syndicate or its assigns:

- (e) By the regulations authorising the permit aforesaid a royalty of two shillings² per ounce is payable on all gold won from the said lands:
- (f) With the object of facilitating the settlement and development of the said lands it is expedient to release the said royalty, and to enact the following provisions.

57. Regulations may be made

The respective owners of the said lands mentioned in the Schedule hereto, may, from time to time, with the approval of the Governor, but not otherwise, make, alter, amend, and repeal regulations for the management of gold-mining on their lands.

58. Regulations on publication to have the force of the law

Such regulations shall be published in the Government Gazette, and after publication shall have the force and effect of law, and shall be judicially noticed in every Court of Justice: Provided that all such regulations shall be submitted to Parliament in the manner prescribed by section 55³.

59. Fines may be imposed

By such regulations there may be imposed a fine for any breach thereof not exceeding ten pounds².

60. Proceedings on breach of regulations

All proceedings for the breach of any such regulations and for the recovery of any fine or penalty may be commenced and prosecuted as if such proceedings related to the breach of the regulations made under the *Goldfields Act 1895*⁴, and the recovery of fines or penalties thereby imposed.

61. Royalty released

Subject to the said regulations being duly made and published, and so long as the same shall continue binding on the Syndicate and its assigns, the royalty of two shillings² per ounce now payable in respect of all gold won from the said lands shall be, and the same is hereby released.

62. Provisions of preceding divisions of this Act not to apply

The provisions of the preceding divisions⁵ of this Act shall not apply to the lands in the said Schedule hereto.

- ³ Section 55 of the Act was repealed by the Mining Act 1904. It read as follows:

55 Power to make regulations

- (1) It shall be lawful for the Governor, from time to time to make, alter, and repeal such regulations as may be deemed necessary for the purpose of giving effect to this Act, and for the management of mining on private property generally.
- (2) Such regulations may be made for the whole Colony, or for any particular part thereof, and shall be published in the Government

Gazette, and after publication therein shall have the force and effect of law, and shall be judicially noticed in every court of justice. Copies of all regulations made under this Act, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days from the making thereof; and such regulations shall, as from such publication as aforesaid, and in so far as not disallowed by Parliament, be deemed to be within the powers conferred by this Act, and to have been legally and properly made.

- (3) It shall be lawful by such regulations to impose for any breach thereof, or for any disobedience of a lawful order of the warden, or Warden's Court, a fine not exceeding Twenty pounds, and in default of payment imprisonment with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding six months.

⁴ The Goldfields Act 1895 was repealed by the Mining Act 1904.

⁵ The provisions of the Act (other than sections 56 to 62 and the Schedule) were repealed by the Mining Act 1904.
