No warranty is given as to the accuracy or completeness of this document. The State of Western Australia and its agents and employees disclaim liability, whether in negligence or otherwise, for any loss or damage resulting from reliance on the accuracy or completeness of this document.

REPRINT AND CONSOLIDATION NUMBERING

The reprint number (in the footer of each page of the document) shows how many times the Act has been reprinted. For example, numbering a reprint as "Reprint 3" would mean that the reprint was the 3rd reprint since the Act was passed. A consolidation described as "Consolidation 3a" would be the result of updating Reprint 3 for the first time to reflect the amendments since the date as at which Reprint 3 was prepared.

Reprint and consolidation numbering was implemented as from 1 January 2003.

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Governor may make regulations amending Schedule 1 for the purposes of changing the boundaries of any region.
- (2) Regulations may only be made under subsection (1) if each of the commissions affected by proposed regulations have recommended that the regulations be made.

Part 3 — Operation of commissions

Division 1 — Constitution and proceedings of commissions

14. Status of a commission

- (1) A commission is a body corporate with perpetual succession.
- (2) Proceedings may be taken by or against a commission in that commission's corporate name.
- (3) A commission is an agent of the Crown.

15. Board of management of a commission

- (1) Subject to section 16, a commission is to have a board of management comprising —
 - (a) the Director, by virtue of his or her office; and
 - (b) a prescribed number of other members, not exceeding 9, who are to be appointed by the Minister in the prescribed manner.
- (2) A board is the governing body of a commission with authority, in the name of that commission, to perform the functions of that commission.
- (3) The Minister is to appoint a member of a board to be chairperson and another member to be deputy chairperson.
- (4) The Minister is to cause notice of each appointment under this section to be published in the Gazette.

16. Method of appointment of appointed members

Regulations made for the purposes of paragraph (b) of section 15(1) are to be consistent with the following, unless particular circumstances require otherwise —

- (a) one third of the members referred to in that paragraph are to be persons who are resident in the region and nominated in accordance with the regulations;

Regional Development Commissions Act 1993

Part 3 Operation of commissions

Division 1 Constitution and proceedings of commissions

s. 17

- (b) one third of those members are to be members of the council of a local government in the region and are to be nominated by local governments in the region in accordance with the regulations; and
- (c) one third of those members are to be appointed at the Minister's discretion.

[Section 16 amended by No. 14 of 1996 s. 4; No. 16 of 1997 s. 4.]

17. Constitution and proceedings of a board

Schedule 2 has effect with respect to the constitution and proceedings of a board.

18. Delegation by board

- (1) A board may, by resolution, delegate to an appointed member, the Director or another officer referred to in section 27(1) or a committee, either generally or otherwise as provided by the instrument of delegation, the performance of all or any of its functions, except this power of delegation.
- (2) A function delegated under this section may be performed by the delegate in accordance with the instrument of delegation and, when so performed, is, for the purposes of this Act, to be taken to have been performed by the delegating board.

19. Remuneration and allowances of appointed members and members of committees

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), an appointed member or a member of a committee, other than a person who is an officer of the Public Service, is to be paid such remuneration and travelling and other allowances as the Minister from time to time, after consultation with the Minister for Public Sector Management², determines in respect of that member.

- (2) A member of a committee established under clause 11 of Schedule 2 —
- (a) is not to be paid remuneration, unless the Minister, after consultation with the Minister for Public Sector Management², determines that payment is to be made in respect of that member; but
 - (b) is entitled to be paid out-of-pocket expenses for travel and accommodation in connection with the discharge of his or her duties.

20. Protection of board members and members of committees

- (1) A board member or a member of a committee is not personally liable for any act done or omitted to be done in good faith by a commission, a board, a committee or by that person acting as a board member or as a member of a committee.
- (2) Subsection (1) has effect subject to the Statutory Corporations (Liability of Directors) Act 1996 so far as it applies to the Mid West Development Commission or the South West Development Commission.

[Section 20 amended by No. 41 of 1996 s. 3.]

21. Disclosure of pecuniary interests

- (1) A board member or a member of a committee who has a direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter being considered or about to be considered by that board or that committee must, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to his or her knowledge, disclose the nature of his or her interest at a meeting of the board or the committee, as the case requires.
- (2) A disclosure under subsection (1) is to be recorded in the minutes of the meeting of the board or the committee concerned and, unless the board or that committee otherwise determines, the board member or member of the committee must not —
- (a) be present during any deliberation; or

Regional Development Commissions Act 1993

Part 3 Operation of commissions

Division 1 Constitution and proceedings of commissions

s. 22

- (b) take part in any decision, of the board or that committee with respect to the matter to which the disclosure relates.
- (3) For the purpose of the making of a determination by a board or a committee under subsection (2) in relation to a member of the board or committee who has made a disclosure under subsection (1), that member must not —
 - (a) be present during any deliberation of the board or committee for the purpose of making the determination; or
 - (b) take part in the making of the determination by the board or committee.
- (4) A board member or member of a committee who contravenes or fails to comply with a provision of this section commits an offence.
Penalty: $5 000.

22. Execution of documents by a commission

- (1) A document is duly executed by a commission, if —
 - (a) the common seal of that commission is affixed to the document in accordance with subsections (2) and (3); or
 - (b) the document is signed on behalf of that commission by a board member or members or an officer or officers of that commission in accordance with an authorisation given under subsection (4).
- (2) The common seal of a commission must not be affixed to any document except by resolution of the board of that commission.
- (3) The common seal of a commission is to be affixed to a document in the presence of the chairperson and one other board member and each of them is to sign the document to attest that the common seal was so affixed.

- (4) A board may, in writing under its common seal, authorise a member or members of that board, or an officer or officers of the relevant commission to sign documents on behalf of that commission, either generally or subject to such conditions or restrictions as may be specified by the board in the authorisation.
- (5) A document purporting to be executed in accordance with this section is presumed to be duly executed until the contrary is shown.
- (6) When a document is produced bearing a seal purporting to be the common seal of a commission, it is to be presumed that the seal is the common seal of that commission until the contrary is shown.

Division 2 — Functions and powers of a commission

23. Objects and functions of a commission

- (1) The objects of a commission are to —
 - (a) maximize job creation and improve career opportunities in the region;
 - (b) develop and broaden the economic base of the region;
 - (c) identify infrastructure services to promote economic and social development within the region;
 - (d) provide information and advice to promote business development within the region;
 - (e) seek to ensure that the general standard of government services and access to those services in the region is comparable to that which applies in the metropolitan area; and
 - (f) generally take steps to encourage, promote, facilitate and monitor the economic development in the region.

Regional Development Commissions Act 1993

Part 3 Operation of commissions

Division 2 Functions and powers of a commission

s. 24

- (2) For the purposes of achieving those objects a commission is to —
- (a) promote the region;
 - (b) facilitate coordination between relevant statutory bodies and State government agencies;
 - (c) cooperate with representatives of industry and commerce, employer and employee organizations, education and training institutions and other sections of the community within the region;
 - (d) identify the opportunities for investment in the region and encourage that investment;
 - (e) identify the infrastructure needs of the region, and encourage the provision of that infrastructure in the region; and
 - (f) cooperate with —
 - (i) departments of the Public Service of the State and the Commonwealth, and other agencies, instrumentalities and statutory bodies of the State and the Commonwealth; and
 - (ii) local governments,in order to promote equitable delivery of services within the region.

[Section 23 amended by No. 14 of 1996 s. 4.]

24. Powers of a commission

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a commission has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with the performance of its functions.
- (1a) Without limiting subsection (1), a commission may, for or in connection with the performance of its functions, provide financial support in the form of a grant.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not empower a commission —
- (a) subject to Part 5, to enter into any business undertaking either directly or indirectly;
 - (b) to acquire land or any estate or interest in land other than a tenancy to provide office premises for the commission; or
 - (c) to borrow money or obtain financial accommodation.
- (3) In performing its functions, a commission may act in conjunction with —
- (a) any person; or
 - (b) any department of the Public Service, or other agency or instrumentality, of the State or the Commonwealth.
- (4) The requirement of disclosure in section 28(2) applies to a person referred to in subsection (3).

[Section 24 amended by No. 5 of 2003 s. 4(1).]

25. Minister may give directions

- (1) The Minister may give directions in writing to a commission with respect to the performance of its functions, either generally or in relation to a particular matter, and the commission is to give effect to any such direction.
- (2) The text of any direction given under subsection (1) is to be included in the annual report submitted by the accountable authority of the relevant commission under Part 5 of the Financial Management Act 2006.
- (3) Subsection (1) has effect subject to the Statutory Corporations (Liability of Directors) Act 1996 so far as it applies to the Mid West Development Commission or the South West Development Commission.

[Section 25 amended by No. 41 of 1996 s. 3; No. 77 of 2006 s. 17.]

26. Minister to have access to information

- (1) The Minister is entitled —
- (a) to have information in the possession of a commission; and
 - (b) where the information is in or on a document, to have, and make and retain copies of, that document.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) the Minister may —
- (a) request a commission to furnish information to the Minister;
 - (b) request a commission to give the Minister access to information;
 - (c) for the purposes of paragraph (b) make use of the staff and facilities of a commission to obtain the information and furnish it to the Minister.
- (3) A commission is to comply with a request under subsection (2) and make its staff and facilities available to the Minister for the purposes of subsection (2)(c).
- (4) In this section —
- “document” includes any tape, disc or other device or medium on which information is recorded or stored mechanically, photographically, or electronically or otherwise;
- “information” means information specified, or of a description specified, by the Minister that relates to the functions of a commission.

Division 3 — Director and other staff of a commission

27. Appointment and functions of Director and other staff

- (1) There are to be appointed under and subject to Part 3 of the Public Sector Management Act 1994 a Director of each commission and such other officers as may be necessary to enable that commission to perform its functions.

- (2) The function of a Director is to administer the day to day operations of a commission.
- (3) Despite anything in this section, to the extent that there is, in the case of a person who is appointed under subsection (1) to be the Director or an officer of a commission and who is a member of the Senior Executive Service within the meaning of the *Public Sector Management Act 1994*³, any inconsistency between this Act and that Act, that Act prevails.

[Section 27 amended by No. 32 of 1994 s. 3(2).]

28. Engagement of consultants

- (1) A commission may, with the prior approval of the Minister, engage under contracts for services such consultants and persons to provide professional, technical or other assistance as it considers necessary to enable that commission to perform its functions.
- (2) A person engaged under subsection (1) must disclose to the chairperson of the board any direct or indirect pecuniary interest in a matter to which his or her services relate, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to his or her knowledge.
Penalty: $5 000.
- (3) The chairperson of the board must cause that disclosure to be recorded in the minutes of the next meeting of the board.
- (4) If the chairperson of a board fails to comply with subsection (3), he or she —
 - (a) is liable to the commission for any damage or loss suffered by the commission as a result of that failure; and
 - (b) commits an offence and is liable to a fine of $5 000.

29. Use of staff and facilities of departments, agencies and instrumentalities

- (1) A commission may by arrangement make use, either part-time or full-time, of —
 - (a) the services of staff employed in the Public Service or in a State agency or instrumentality or otherwise in the service of the Crown in right of the State; or
 - (b) any facilities of a department of the Public Service or of a State agency or instrumentality.
- (2) An arrangement under subsection (1) is to be made between the commission and the Minister concerned, and on such terms and conditions as they agree with the Minister for Public Sector Management².

30. Secrecy

- (1) A person to whom this section applies must not, either directly or indirectly, except in the performance of a function under or in connection with this or any other Act —
 - (a) make a record of, or divulge or communicate to any person, any information concerning the affairs of another person acquired by him or her by reason of his or her office or employment under or for the purposes of this Act; or
 - (b) produce to any person any document relating to the affairs of another person furnished for the purposes of this Act.

Penalty: $10 000.

- (2) This section applies to every person who is or has been —
 - (a) a board member or a member of a committee;
 - (b) an officer or employee; or
 - (c) a person referred to in section 28 or 29.

Division 4 — Financial provisions

31. Funds of a commission

- (1) The funds available for the purpose of enabling a commission to perform its functions consist of —
 - (a) moneys from time to time appropriated by Parliament; and
 - (b) any other moneys lawfully received by, made available to, or payable to the commission.
- (2) An agency special purpose account called the (name of region) Development Commission Account is established for each commission under section 16 of the Financial Management Act 2006 to which the funds for each commission referred to in subsection (1) are to be credited.
- (3) The funds standing to the credit of a commission in an Account are to be applied in payment of —
 - (a) interest on and repayments of moneys advanced to the commission;
 - (b) the remuneration and travelling and other allowances payable to the appointed members or members of committees of the commission under section 19; and
 - (c) any other expenditure lawfully incurred by the commission in the performance of its functions.

[Section 31 amended by No. 28 of 2006 s. 371; No. 77 of 2006 s. 17.]

32. Application of Financial Management Act 2006 and the Auditor General Act 2006

- (1) The provisions of the Financial Management Act 2006 and the Auditor General Act 2006 regulating the financial administration, audit and reporting of statutory authorities apply to and in respect of each commission and its operations.

Regional Development Commissions Act 1993

Part 3 Operation of commissions

Division 4 Financial provisions

s. 32

- (2) The provisions mentioned in subsection (1) apply in respect of a commission and its operations as if the term “Minister” used in those provisions had the meaning given by section 3(3) of this Act.

[Section 32 amended by No. 18 of 2001 s. 5; No. 77 of 2006 s. 17.]

Part 4 — Regional Development Council

33. Regional Development Council established

There is established by this section a council called the Regional Development Council.

34. Membership of Council

- (1) The Council is to consist of —
 - (a) the chairperson of each commission; and
 - (b) 3 persons appointed by the Minister.
- (2) The Minister is to appoint a member of the Council to be the chairperson.
- (3) Two of the persons appointed by the Minister under subsection (1)(b) are to have experience and expertise in local government and are to be selected from nominations provided by the Western Australian Local Government Association constituted under section 9.58 of the Local Government Act 1995.

[Section 34 amended by No. 17 of 1996 s. 5; No. 49 of 2004 s. 13.]

35. Functions of the Council

- (1) The function of the Council is to be the advisory body to the Minister on all regional development issues and for that purpose —
 - (a) to promote development in all regions;
 - (b) to develop policy proposals on development issues affecting one or more of the regions;
 - (c) to facilitate liaison between commissions and relevant government agencies and the coordination of their respective functions;
 - (d) to promote liaison between local, State and Commonwealth government bodies with respect to

s. 36

regional issues, and the coordination of their respective policies on those issues; and

(e) to report to the Minister on matters referred to it by the Minister.

(2) The Council is to report to the Minister on a matter referred to it by the Minister within such period as the Minister directs.

36. Council procedures

(1) The Council is to meet at least twice each year.

(2) If the chairperson of a commission is unable to attend a Council meeting, an appointed member of the board, nominated by that chairperson, may attend in his or her place as a member of the Council.

(3) Subject to the directions of the Minister, the Council may determine its own procedures.

37. Protection of Council members

A Council member is not personally liable for any act done or omitted to be done in good faith by the Council or by that person acting as a Council member.

Part 5 — Vesting of land of former authorities

38. Definition

In this Part —

“land” includes any estate or interest in land.

39. Vesting of land

Schedule 2

[Sections 3, 17 and 19]

Part 1 — Constitution and proceedings of a board

1. Term of office of appointed member

- (1) An appointed member holds office for such term, being not more than 3 years, as is specified in the member's instrument of appointment, but he or she is eligible —
 - (a) for further reappointment, if the reappointment is consecutive to a previous appointment and will not result in the member holding office continually for a time which exceeds 6 years; or
 - (b) to be reappointed from time to time, if the term of the reappointment is not consecutive to a previous appointment.
- (2) An appointed member, unless the member sooner dies or resigns or is removed from office, continues in office until a successor comes into office, despite the fact that the term for which the member was appointed may have expired.

[Clause 1 amended by No. 16 of 1997 s. 6(1).]

2. Vacation of office by appointed member

- (1) An appointed member may resign from office by notice in writing delivered to the Minister.
- (2) An appointed member may be removed from office at any time by the Minister —
 - (a) for mental or physical incapacity, incompetence, neglect of duty or misconduct that impairs the performance of his or her functions as a member and is proved to the satisfaction of the Minister;
 - (b) if the member is an insolvent under administration, as that term is defined in the Corporations Act 2001 of the Commonwealth;
 - (c) if the member is absent without leave of the board from 3 consecutive meetings of the board of which the member has had notice; or

- (d) for any other act or omission that, in the opinion of the Minister, may cause prejudice or injury to the board.
- (3) The contravention of, or failure to comply with, section 21, 28(3) or 30 constitutes misconduct for the purposes of subclause (2).
- (4) The Minister is to terminate the appointment of a member who was nominated under section 16(b) if that person has ceased to be a member of the council of a local government and has not resigned from office.

[Clause 2 amended by No. 16 of 1997 s. 6(2); No. 10 of 2001 s. 220.]

3. Temporary members

- (1) If an appointed member is unable to act by reason of sickness, absence or other cause, the Minister may appoint another person to act temporarily in the member's place, and while so acting according to the tenor of his or her appointment the other person has all the functions of a board member.
- (2) An act or omission of a person acting in place of another under this clause may not be questioned on the ground that the occasion for his or her appointment or acting had not arisen or had ceased.
- (3) The appointment of a person as a temporary member may be terminated at any time by the Minister.

4. Meetings of a board

- (1) The first meeting of a board is to be convened by the chairperson and, subject to subclause (2), subsequent meetings are to be held at such times and places as the board determines.
- (2) A special meeting of a board may at any time be convened by the chairperson.
- (3) At a meeting of a board —
 - (a) the chairperson;
 - (b) in the absence of the chairperson, the deputy chairperson; or
 - (c) in the absence of the chairperson and the deputy chairperson, a person elected by the board members present at the meeting from among their number, is to preside.

Regional Development Commissions Act 1993

Schedule 2

Part 2 Regional Development Advisory Committees and other committees

cl. 5

- (4) At any meeting of a board —
- (a) each board member present is entitled to a deliberative vote;
 - (b) subject to paragraph (c), if the votes cast on a question are equally divided, the question remains unresolved until a subsequent meeting of the board; and
 - (c) if the votes cast on a question at a meeting of the board were equally divided and the votes cast on the question at a subsequent meeting of the board are again equally divided, the question is taken to have been resolved in the negative.
- (5) A board is to cause accurate minutes to be kept of the proceedings at its meetings.

5. Resolution may be passed without meeting

A resolution in writing signed or assented to by letter or facsimile by each board member is as valid and effectual as if it had been passed at a meeting of that board.

6. Leave of absence

A board may grant leave of absence to a board member on such terms and conditions as it thinks fit.

7. Board to determine own procedures

Subject to this Act, a board may determine its own procedures.

Part 2 — Regional Development Advisory Committees and other committees

Division 1 — Regional Development Advisory Committees

8. Establishment

- (1) The Minister may from time to time establish —
- (a) a Regional Development Advisory Committee (“a Committee”) for a commission; or
 - (b) 2 or more such Committees for specified parts of the commission’s region,
- if the board of that commission so recommends.

- (2) The Minister is to consult with the regional community in such manner as he or she thinks appropriate in determining the structure of a Committee.
- (3) For the purpose of appointing a Committee, the board is to —
 - (a) cause advertisements to be placed in newspapers circulating in the region, calling for the submission of the names of persons who are able and willing to be candidates for appointment as members; and
 - (b) invite organizations, or individuals, to submit the names of persons who are able and willing to be candidates for appointment as members.
- (4) No more than 2 board members may be members of a single Committee.
- (5) The Minister is to appoint a member of a Committee to be the chairperson of that Committee.
- (6) The Minister may alter or reconstitute a Committee and, if a board so recommends, may discharge a Committee.

9. Functions

The functions of a Committee are, in relation to the region or part of the region as the case requires, to —

- (a) advise the board on the performance of its functions; and
- (b) ensure that the board is fully informed of, and has regular access to a broad cross-section of community views on, matters of economic and social development.

10. Committee procedures and time for reporting

- (1) Subject to the directions of the board, a Committee may determine its own procedures.
- (2) A Committee is to report to the board on a matter referred to it by the board within such period as the board directs.

Division 2 — Other committees

11. Establishment of other committees

- (1) A board may from time to time establish a committee for the purpose of considering a particular matter specified by the board and prescribe the membership, constitution and procedures of the committee.
- (2) At least one member of the board must be a member of the committee.
- (3) A board may discharge, alter, or reconstitute any such committee.
- (4) Subject to this clause, a committee may determine its own procedures.

Schedule 3

[section 43]

Transitional provisions

1. Succession by new bodies

- (1) On the repeal of the Goldfields-Esperance Development Authority Act 1990 by section 5(3) of this Act —
 - (a) the Goldfields-Esperance Development Commission (the “new body”) is the successor to the Goldfields-Esperance Development Authority (the “existing body”); and
 - (b) the person who, immediately before the repeal of that Act, held the position of Director of the existing body under section 15(1) of that Act, other than in an acting capacity, is to be taken to have been appointed as Director of the new body under section 27(1) of this Act.
- (2) On the repeal of the Great Southern Development Authority Act 1987 by section 6(3) of this Act, the Great Southern Development Commission (the “new body”) is the successor to the Great Southern Development Authority (the “existing body”).
- (3) On the repeal of the Geraldton Mid-West Development Authority Act 1988 by section 8(3) of this Act —
 - (a) the Mid West Development Commission (the “new body”) is the successor to the Geraldton Mid-West Development Authority (the “existing body”); and
 - (b) the person who, immediately before the repeal of that Act, held the position of Director of the existing body under section 14(1) of that Act, other than in an acting capacity, is to be taken to have been appointed as Director of the new body under section 27(1) of this Act.
- (4) On the repeal of the Pilbara Development Commission Act 1992 by section 10(3) of this Act, the Pilbara Development Commission (the “new body”) is the successor to the Pilbara Development Commission (the “existing body”) as established by that Act.

cl. 2

- (5) On the repeal of the South West Development Authority Act 1984 by section 11(3) of this Act —
- (a) the South West Development Commission (the “new body”) is the successor to the South West Development Authority (the “existing body”); and
 - (b) the person who, immediately before the repeal of that Act, held the position of Executive Director of the existing body under section 17(1) of that Act, other than in an acting capacity, is to be taken to have been appointed as Director of the new body under section 27(1) of this Act.

2. Assets, liabilities, etc.

Without limiting section 39, on the repeal of a repealed Act —

- (a) all property and every right or interest in property that immediately before that repeal was vested in an existing body passes to and becomes vested in the new body;
- (b) all rights, liabilities and obligations of an existing body that were in existence immediately before that repeal devolve on the new body;
- (c) all contracts, agreements and undertakings made by and with an existing body and having effect immediately before that repeal have effect as contracts, agreements and undertakings made by and with the new body, and may be enforced by or against the new body accordingly; and
- (d) any legal or other proceedings or any remedies that might, but for this clause, have been commenced or continued or available by or against or to the existing body may be commenced or continued, or are available, by or against or to the new body, as the case may be.

3. Moneys in Account

On the repeal of a repealed Act, moneys standing to the credit of an Account established under that repealed Act are moneys standing to the credit of the corresponding Account established by section 31(2) of this Act.

4. References to repealed legislation

A reference in a document executed before the repeal of a repealed Act to that Act or a provision of that Act is to be construed, unless the context otherwise requires, as if that reference had been amended to a reference to this Act or to the corresponding provision of this Act, as the case may be.

5. References to existing body

A reference in a document executed before the repeal of a repealed Act to an existing body is to be construed, unless the context otherwise requires, as if that reference had been amended to a reference to the corresponding new body.

6. Annual report by existing bodies

- (1) On the repeal of a repealed Act, the accountable authority, within the meaning in the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1985, of an existing body is to report in respect of the existing body, as required by section 66 of that Act, for the period from the preceding 1 July to the time of the repeal, and Division 14 of Part II of that Act applies as if that period were a full financial year.
- (2) An existing body and its accountable authority as constituted under a repealed Act continues in existence for the purpose of subclause (1) and for that purpose only.
- (3) A new body is to arrange for the provision of such clerical and other assistance to an existing body as is reasonably required for the purpose of subclause (1).

- ² Under the Public Sector Management Act 1994 s. 112(2), a reference in a written law to the Public Service Commissioner is, unless the contrary intention appears or it is otherwise provided under the Acts Amendment (Public Sector Management) Act 1994, to be construed as if it had been amended to be a reference to the Minister for Public Sector Management (as defined in the Interpretation Act 1984). This reference was amended under the Reprints Act 1984 s. 7(5)(a).
- ³ Under the Public Sector Management Act 1994 s. 112(1) a reference to the Public Service Act 1978 is to be read as a reference to the Public Sector Management Act 1994. The reference was changed under the Reprints Act 1984 s. 7(3)(gb).
- ⁴ The Regional Development Commissions Amendment Act 2003 s. 4(2) reads as follows:
- “
- (2) The provision by a commission, within the meaning of the Regional Development Commissions Act 1993, of financial support in the form of a grant before the commencement of this Act is as valid, and is to be regarded as always having been as valid, as it would have been if this Act had commenced before the financial support was provided.
